Mistreatment Charge Of Nazis Probed By British

LONDON (Reuter)—The War Office will make a statement within the next 36 hours on the allegations by four Nazi generals they have been subjected to third degree methods while being held by British authorities at Muenster, Germany, it was learned.

The generals—Von Runstedt, Brauchitsch, Manstein and Strauss—were taken from Britain to Muenster a few months ago.

There are indications British authorities here believe the allegations to be without foundation.

The War Office statement may deal with the possibility of a trial of the four generals on "war crimes" charges and the question of their present treatment.

PESS OPINIONS

Considerable interest has been shown in Britain on the treatment of the generals.

George Edinger wrote in the Conservative Daily Telegraph last Saturday that the generals were now being held "under a rather theatrical restraint in Germany" and that the "unexplained detention of these officers, still ignorant of their future, lends unfortunate color" to reports that they would be tried as war criminals.

Black Ball Sale May End Chinook Run To Victoria

SEATTLE (AP)—The Puget Sound Navigation Co. probably will discontinue its Seattle-Victoria run if Washington State takes over the Black Ball System, the company president said today.

Capt. Alex M. Peabody said the company will try to continue the Chinook's Canada run, but he doubts it will be financially successful.

Company stockholders will meet Aug. 30 to consider a board of directors' recommendation that the company sell its ferries to the state.

Peabody explained that at present part of the cost of operating the Chinook between Seattle and Victoria is chargeable to the intra-state operation, because of its stops at state points.

He added, however, that continued operation of the Chinook alone would mean that "this single vessel will require a solicitation staff, a tariff department, an accounting and auditing department, a freight and billing department, ticket sellers and ticket lifters."

He said the lone ferry also would have to support maintenance of four docks—in Seattle, Port Townsend, Port Angeles and Victoria.

Object To Handshake

SYDNEY, Australia (AP)—A party of Australian Members of Parliament returned to Sydney today to face a barrage of press queries about their shaking hands with Emperor Hirohito. Col. Rupert Ryan, Victoria Liberal, told reporters the greeting was just normal courtesy.

Canada Neutral If British House Opens Nfld. Question

OTTAWA (CP)—Canada will maintain a hands-off policy if the question of Newfoundland's entry into Confederation is reopened in the British Parliament, it was learned today.

This was the official reaction to a report that the island's Responsible Government Party, beaten in the recent referendum in which Newfoundland voted to join Canada, would carry its fight to the British House of Commons.

A government spokesman said it was extremely unlikely Canada

Retail Sales Tax Inspectors To Start Business Door To Door Check Next Week

Sales tax inspectors for the provincial government will start making a door-by-door check of retail businesses starting next Wednesday in an effort to locate firms which have not registered. Deadline for the registration is Aug. 31—next Tuesday. While nobody knows exactly how many British Columbia firms should be enrolled for sales tax collection, Lloyd Detwiler, sales tax commissioner, feels that there are about 25,000 retail outlets in the province. To date only 18,000 to 19,000 have registered with the commission. The check-up, which will probably take about a week to complete in the urban parts of the province, will be made by the commission's 15 inspectors. On calling at the businesses the inspectors will ask each proprietor to produce his registration certificate. If the proprietor does not the inspector will want to know why that business has not yet been registered under the Social Security and Municipal Aid Act—the official handle of the sales tax law.

To Sell At Ketchikan

KETCHIKAN, Alaska (AP)—Some 200 boats on the tuna grounds will sell here rather than in the United States if the prices and weather are right, fishermen said today. Ketchikan is 20 hours closer than Seattle to the fishing grounds. The discussion was stirred by the arrival earlier this week of what are believed to be the first tuna landed in Alaska.

Canada Neutral If British House Opens Nfld. Question

OTTAWA (CP)—Canada will maintain a hands-off policy if the question of Newfoundland's entry into Confederation is reopened in the British Parliament, it was learned today.

This was the official reaction to a report that the island's Responsible Government Party, beaten in the recent referendum in which Newfoundland voted to join Canada, would carry its fight to the British House of Commons.

As Example To Others

Mr. Detwiler made it clear today that he does not want to have to take action against any of the province's retailers but he thought the commission may haul a few into court as examples to others that they cannot get away without registering.

He emphasized no business is going to be permitted to pocket the government's funds.

While some firms, contrary to instructions, have forwarded the sales tax receipts to the government already, the receipts will begin to pour into the office headquarters here starting next Wednesday at the rate of $1,000,000 a month.

To give the firms an opportunity to get their accounting and collection systems functioning, the commission has allowed them to bulk the first two months' collections into one remittance. It is due Sept. 20. After that the estimated 25,000 retail businesses of the province will be required

To Take No 'Penny Audit'

There will be no "penny audit" of company books and accounts to determine the amount of tax due the government if Mr. Detwiler can avoid it. The retailers will merely have to furnish the sales tax office with statistics representing their total sales, their non-taxable sales and the amount of tax collected.

The sales tax office will "process" these statistics, comparing the ratio of taxable to non-taxable business in one firm with other firms. If the ratio of one firm is out of line with that of others, Mr. Detwiler will want to know why, and if necessary his inspectors will go over the company's books to find out.

If the businesses fail to give the necessary information Mr. Detwiler sees no alternative but a "penny audit" which will increase the cost of the administration of the tax tremendously and which will make things much more difficult for the retailers.

To date the sales tax commissioner feels that the majority of the businesses are making an honest effort to meet the government's requirements.

LETTERS OF APPRECIATION

Surprisingly to Mr. Detwiler among the many complaints and requests for information his office has received since the tax law came into effect there have been some letters of appreciation. He reported that some B.C.

to submit the sales tax receipts to the government monthly.

Exactly how much the tax will produce for the provincial government's ever growing coffers is not known. Collection officials feel sure that the tax, which was first collected in this province July 1, will produce $12,000,000 annually. By how much it will exceed that official estimate is a guess. Some have placed the annual revenue at $25,000,000.

How much the tax will produce in excess of $12,000,000 will largely depend on the importations by big companies of machinery and capital goods. Construction of a huge plant may mean several hundred thousand dollars in sales tax to the province.

In some states of the U.S. where the sales tax has been introduced the revenue of the tax was overestimated by 100 per cent. Other states found that the tax produced only half as much as economists had predicted.

retailers have written him that they consider it a privilege to collect the tax which will go toward maintaining old-age pensions. Others say they think the tax is a good idea and is becoming generally accepted throughout the nation and the United States.

"Others give us hell," he added.

Mountbattens Today In Port Hope, Ont.

OTTAWA (CP)—The Earl and Countess of Mountbatten left today by train for Port Hope, Ont., on the way to the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto.

At Port Hope, they will visit Rt. Hon. Vincent Massey, former Canadian High Commissioner in London, and Mrs. Massey, old friends. From there, they will motor to Toronto.

Gets One For Two

DUNCAN (CP)—Frank Simes of Maple Bay used two lines to catch a fish, he reported today. The first attempt fouled the line in his boat's propeller shaft. A second cast brought in, not a fish, but the first line. It, the lost line, had the fish.

Communist-Led Mob Storms Into Berlin City Hall

BERLIN (AP)—Howling, Communist-led demonstrators smashed through police lines and stormed into Berlin's city hall today.

Police reserves were called up to handle the crowd, estimated to total more than 10,000 persons.

They forced their way through a police line, led by men who shouted:

"Down with the capitalists!"

"Down with the splitters!"

After bursting into the building, which is located in the Soviet sector of the city, they rushed upstairs in the City Assembly Chambers.

The demonstrators were members of the Socialist Unity Party (S.E.D.), which is sponsored by the Russians and dominated by Communists. The crowd gathered outside the City Hall carrying red banners and singing "The Internationale."

CARRIED BANNERS

Red banners carried the words: "One administration, one currency." "We want potatoes," "Down with the enemies of the workers," "Down with the agents of monopoly capitalism."

Berlin's City Parliament (council), predominantly anti-Communist, had been scheduled to vote today on a resolution to send a delegation to Western Germany's "Constitutional Assembly." A postponement was proposed by Socialist Leader Franz Neumann and approved by the Parliament's nine-man senior committee.

Police sought to reason with the crowd, telling them there was no point to a demonstration since the assembly meeting had been put off. But the demonstrators charged ahead.

TRIED TO MAKE PANIC

"I don't think they planned a real putsch to try to seize the city hall building," acting Mayor Ferdinand Friedensburg told reporters. "But they aimed at panicking us and scaring us out of the building. Then they could have said that we deserted and could not be relied upon to run the city."

Rain A Novelty

LADYSMITH (CP)—Everybody doesn't curse British Columbia's rainy weather. Not everybody!

A party of California tourists here said Wednesday they liked "the feel of the rain. It's so refreshing after California's dryness."

Columbia Salmon Season 'Very Poor'

ASTORIA, Wash. (AP)—A "very poor" Columbia River commercial fishing season ended at noon today and fishermen mostly put the blame on June floods which devastated parts of the northwest.

Despite a surge of good catches during the last week, fishermen said the salmon take for the year was poor.

Good fish escapement at Bonneville indicated the fish were entering the river, but gillnetters said debris and muddy waters that followed the flood made fishing impossible until recently.

Commercial fishing will be resumed Sept. 10, but usually only a small number of fish are taken during the first 10 days after the opening.

Hunting For Man Who Took Away Son

KIRKLAND LAKE, Ont. (CP)—Royal Canadian Mounted Police were asked today to join in the search for George Murnaghan, 36, of St. James, Man., on a charge of kidnapping his two-year-old son.

Murnaghan, alias Reply and McDougall, is believed to be somewhere in the northern Ontario mining and timber areas.

Police said he is wanted for removing from Manitoba his son, George Lewis Murnaghan, contrary to a court order which permitted him to see the child 24 hours each week but forbade either him or his wife to remove the child from the province.

Shoe Firm Says Orders Decrease By 25 Per Cent

OTTAWA (CP)—Price resistance on the part of the public, coupled with high stocks in retailers' hands, is responsible for this year's reduced shoe sales, a manufacturer testified today before the Prices Commission.

George Dufresne, vice-president of the Slater Shoe Co. (Canada) Ltd., said his firm's orders this year were 25 per cent below those of last year.

He said the main reason for this year's reduced sales is the desire of retailers to reduce their stocks. There might be some price resistance.

Under questioning by H. A. Dyde, commission counsel, Mr. Dufresne stated more definitely that consumer resistance to present prices is a factor in reducing sales.

Information presented by the company showed that the firm's operating income—profit before payment of taxes—which was $20,821 in 1939, had risen to $111,859 in 1947. Sales rose from 213,800 pairs to 304,000 pairs in the same period, while the average selling prices rose from $3.57 in 1939 to $6.59 in 1947.

Canada Still Delays Recognizing Israel

OTTAWA (CP)—No decision has been reached yet on the question of Canada giving diplomatic recognition to the new Palestine state of Israel, government sources said today.

The government, it was learned, is waiting on the outcome of two situations:

1. Disposal of Israel's application for membership in the United Nations, which will be considered by the U.N. General Assembly in Paris next month.

2. The current truce in the fighting between Arabs and Jews.

It is considered possible here the Canadian decision will be based on that of the U.N.

Trapped In Pits With 5 Copperheads

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. (AP)—Being trapped in a pit with five deadly copperhead snakes crawling toward you might be the perfect nightmare.

But it was anything but a dream for Fred Snow, who climbed down into a deep, dry cesspool to do some work.

On the bottom, he suddenly saw a copperhead crawl between his feet. He smashed it with his trowel.

Straightening up, Snow saw four more of the slithering, hissing reptiles advancing. Unable to get out, he faced them.

He killed three crawlers in rapid succession. The fourth lunged at him from the wall, but he slapped it down with his trowel and killed it too.

Snow then left the pit—his work unfinished.

Search For Missing Airplane, 2 Fliers

VANCOUVER (CP)—Two R.C.A.F. planes took off this morning on a search for a light Tiger Moth float plane, missing for nine days with two men aboard.

Missing are Otis Hollock, 45, of Suburban Lulu Island, and George Campbell, Minstrel Island, B.C., about 190 miles northwest of Vancouver.

With enough fuel for a 24-hour flight, the pair took off from Campbell River, Vancouver Island, Aug. 17, heading for Tahsis Inlet, on the west coast of the island.

Ultimate destination was said to be Minstrel Island, to which they were transporting machinery.

Supplies For Arctic

Say Egyptians Try To Advance But Driven Back

JERUSALEM (AP)—The Jews are making new charges of truce violations by Arab forces in Jerusalem.

An Israeli army bulletin said Egyptian troops tried to advance across no-man's-land toward a Jewish suburb, Israeli troops drove them back, the bulletin added.

It also said hand-grenades were thrown from Arab positions within the old city walls at Jewish troops holding the Mount Zion area. Jewish positions in the area of the New Gate also were subjected to fire from automatic weapons and artillery, the bulletin said.

In Stockholm, the Syrian delegation asked for the International Red Cross conference to send out an appeal for the repatriation of 300,000 Arab refugees in the Middle East.

Heat Grips Central Canada; Many Quit Work To Cool Off

By CANADIAN PRESS

Central Canada sweltered today in a heat wave that had caused 250 persons to collapse at the Ottawa Exhibition, had Torontonians sleeping in parks and prompted employers in several cities to send staffs home to cool off.

The weatherman wouldn't promise any immediate relief for the hot-box area after thermometers had climbed to an official 101 degrees in Toronto and an unofficial 106 in Hull, Que., Wednesday.

Most Maritime and western Canada provinces were comparative ice-boxes. In the Maritimes, humidity was high but thermometers stayed in the mid-70s.

In Victoria and Vancouver Wednesday the highest was 70. For the Victoria region tonight a low of 52 is predicted.

Large Part Of U.S. Swelters

CHICAGO (AP)—Most of the United States sweltered again today in the late August heat wave. There appeared little hope of relief from the hot blasts until the week-end.

The heat belt extended from the Dakotas to the New England states as the oppressive heat moved into the eastern seaboard Wednesday. The weather map Wednesday showed readings of

Frost Forecast On Prairies

EDMONTON (CP)—Prairie residents looked enviously toward central Canada today as they bundled up against chilly winds.

In marked contrast to the heat wave gripping most of Ontario, frost was forecast tonight for the Peace River district and some parts of Saskatchewan.

Three degrees of frost was registered at Athabasca in northern Alberta Wednesday night and the mercury is expected to drop

Another Kremlin Meeting Needed To Settle Details

LONDON (Reuters)—Prime Minister Stalin and envoys of the three western powers reached general agreement at their Moscow conference Monday about currency reform for Berlin but another Kremlin meeting, probably tonight, is needed to thrash out details, well-informed London quarters stated today.

Meanwhile authoritative diplomatic sources said Stalin had agreed in principle to western demands for a share in supervision of Russian currency in Berlin.

This, the informants said, indicates Stalin has recognized the right of Britain, the United States and France to remain in Berlin as occupying powers.

Diplomatic sources have reported that financial experts of the four powers are expected to meet in Berlin on the money question, a major stumbling block to settlement of east-west differences.

Berlin now has two currencies—Russian-sponsored marks and the Deutsche mark of the western sectors. There have been reports that the Soviet-sponsored mark might be acceptable to the western powers in Berlin under certain conditions—such as western participation in supervision over its distribution.

If the expected meeting tonight is successful, it is anticipated the British, French, United States and Russian governments will send instructions to their military governors in Germany to start on-the-spot talks.

Seeing Eye Inc. Inherits Fortune

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A 53-year-old Philadelphia woman bequeathed one-half the residue of her $1,000,000 estate to "The Seeing Eye Inc." at Whippany, N.J., probate of her will disclosed. ## Key Control Centre Directs Planes Over Half Atlantic

MONCTON, N.B. (CP)—One of North America's two oceanic air control centres, situated at the Moncton airport and operated by the federal Department of Transport, has a jurisdiction extending from the New Brunswick-Maine border to mid-Atlantic and covering hundreds of thousands of square miles.

Moncton Air Control is closely linked with the other centre, at

New York, and both are associated with the International Civil Aviation Organization.

When an eastbound trans-Atlantic airliner takes off from Canada or Newfoundland it reports to Moncton Air Control, and continues to report every hour until it is halfway across the ocean. Westbound planes also report hourly from the time they reach mid-Atlantic.

MARKED ON BOARD

Course, speed, altitude and position of planes are marked at regular intervals on a 40-foot-long flight progress board, showing at a glance the location of each commercial plane in flight over a vast area. Sometimes at midnight, normally the busiest period, 35 aircraft are posted.

If an hour passes without an airliner checking in by radio, Air Control alerts search and rescue stations as far away as Newfoundland and Bermuda. Then, if authorities consider there is a real reason for worry, Air Control co-operates in the search for the missing aircraft. It did this when the Bermuda Queen made a forced landing on the Atlantic with 62 passengers and a crew of seven. They were rescued by a United States Coast Guard vessel.

STAFF OF 26

The air control centre has a staff of 26. O. L. Morris, the senior controller, works in an atmosphere of maps, charts, telephones, teletype machines and recording devices.

The big Moncton airport, five miles outside the city, is an alternative landing base for most trans-Atlantic planes. Each of the three main runways is 4,000 feet long and 200 feet wide. One is being extended to 6,000 feet and getting an eight-inch concrete layer over its asphalt surface. It will be able to accommodate aircraft larger than any yet built.

FLOODS IN ENGLAND AND SCOTLAND—Floods are covering 1,000 square miles of Scotland and the north of England after torrential rain storms. Many marooned families have been rescued from their homes, railways put out of action, river banks have crumbled and ripening crops are ruined. Coast Guards with life-saving apparatus have rushed inland during the night to the rescue of families. Here Mrs. Dougall, who is 73, is being rescued in the midst of the floods at Grantshouse, Berwickshire. Her husband, who is 76, was also rescued by the same party.

The other runways will be improved similarly.

COSTS MILLIONS

Cost of the whole development program, including a new administration, passenger and immigration building, is estimated at $3,000,000 to $4,000,000.

Its air approaches clear because of its higher elevation than the surrounding country, the Moncton airport has an average of more than 2,000 landings and take-offs a month, necessitating continuous operation of a control tower. The airport organization numbers more than 200, in addition to 250 employees of Trans-Canada Air Lines.

Mystery Of Fatal Shot On Alaska Highway Probed

KIMBALL, Neb. (AP)—Word was awaited from Canadian officials today in the search for John A. McComas, 52, of Dayton, O.

Gustav A. Wiegner, 24, who accompanied McComas and his daughter on a trip to Alaska, told a story here of the accidental shooting of the Dayton man in British Columbia, county attorney Kenneth C. Fritzler said.

Fritzler said Wiegner was being held without charge pending word from Canada on the outcome of a search for the body of McComas.

Following inquiries from U.S. authorities, British Columbia police are investigating. The search is concentrated around Blueberry, 100 miles north of Dawson Creek. The shooting allegedly took place near there.

McComas' daughter, blonde, 13-year-old Louise, was taken into custody along with Wiegner at Bushnell, Neb. Fritzler said she was being held for Ohio juvenile authorities.

Slender, bespectacled Wiegner reiterated his story of the accidental shooting of McComas, during an afternoon of questioning Wednesday, the county attorney said.

SAYS HE MOVED

Wiegner described how McComas, who was standing about two feet in front of him and to his left, stepped in the line of fire as he shot at a squirrel, Fritzler said.

"We became scared and pulled out," Wiegner was quoted. Fritzler added that Wiegner told him he took McComas' purse containing $1,300.

Before Wiegner had admitted the shooting, Fritzler said he asked Louise: "What would you say if I told you your father was dead?"

The girl, who had been completely unemotional throughout the questioning, only laughed,

CAMPBELL RIVER — Winner of the first annual Canadian Legion Salmon Derby is John Carmichael of Victoria.

A member of the Kamloops Legion Branch, he took the prize with a 65-pound tye, largest caught in North Vancouver Island waters this year. He was awarded a trophy and sports goods valued at $100.

Dr. Paul Samson of Oakland, Calif., took second place and the Willows Hotel Trophy with a 56½-pounder, and Mrs. L. Shuldice of Victoria, third with a catch of 53½ pounds. Consolation prize went to James Ullman who landed a 14½-ounce fish.

Duke Has Certificate As Certified Stoker

LONDON (CP)—The Duke of Edinburgh is a qualified stoker and has a certificate to prove it.

Describing some of his wartime naval experiences to a Canada Club dinner, he recalled a voyage during which Chinese stokers deserted the ship. Officers and men were called on to take over.

"We were all given a certificate stating we were qualified stokers," the Duke said. "I still have that certificate."

COWES, Isle of Wight — To test rescue organization, a submarine staged a "disaster" dive off The Needles. Planes found her on the bottom within 45 minutes.

Fritzler said. After Wiegner's admission of the shooting, Fritzler said Louise told him she had known of her father's death all along. McComas and his daughter had undertaken the trip to Alaska in company with Wiegner, Aug. 4. McComas, on furlough from the veterans' administration in Dayton, planned to place his daughter in a Seventh Day Adventist school at Anchorage, Alaska.

1929 Ford Sought To Prove Truth About Hiss, Chambers

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congressional spy-probers today gave chase to a 1929 jalopy in a renewed attempt to prove whether Alger Hiss or Whitaker Chambers lied about a prewar Communist underground in the United States.

In a drama-packed encounter before the House of Representatives' Un-American Activities Committee Wednesday, Hiss and Chambers told widely different stories about a model A Ford and about nearly everything else.

Each stuck firmly to his main points in the face of warnings that one or the other is sure to face a perjury trial.

DOZEN YEARS AGO

Chambers, short, pudgy, 47-year-old senior editor of Time magazine, insisted that Hiss was a member of a Red underground in Washington a dozen years ago. He said he knew because he used to be a Communist himself and served in the underground.

Hiss insisted it wasn't so, that he doesn't even have any friends who are known to him to be Communists.

Formerly a policy-making official in the State Department, Hiss now is president of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace.

In a formal statement, Hiss called Chambers a "self-confessed liar, spy and traitor" and asked:

"Indeed, is he a man of sanity?"

To a direct question from Rep. Richard Nixon (Rep., Calif.), Chambers replied:

"I have never been treated for mental illness."

Nixon told reporters later the old Ford had "become a vital piece of evidence."

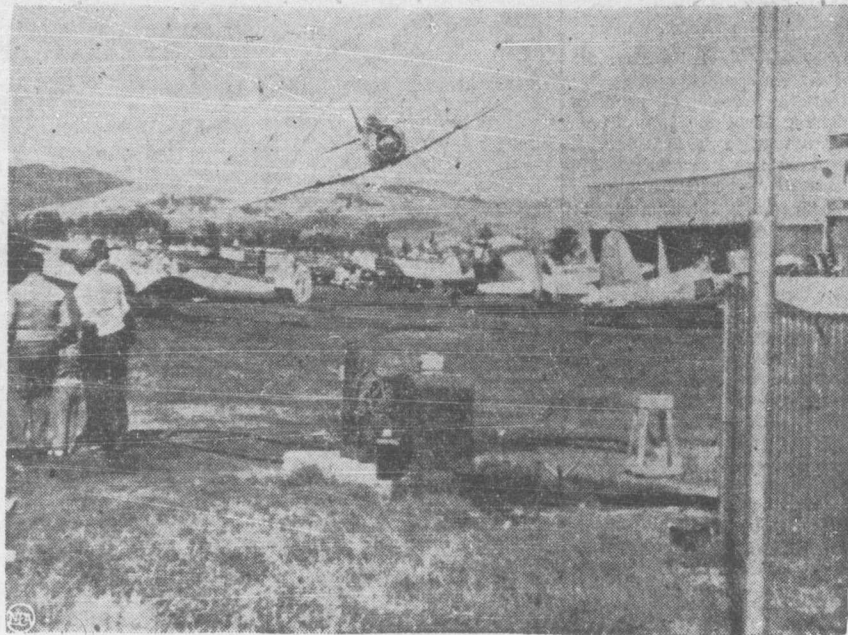

"We have the motor number and we are going to trace it."

Hiss testified that he sold the car to Chambers. Chambers disagreed with this and said that although there was a rule in the underground that cars must be traded in, Hiss insisted his should be given to the party for the use of "some poor Communist organizer in the west."

Chambers said Hiss deposited the car on a used car lot operated by a Communist. The records of the car's ownership might prove who is telling the truth.

Unscheduled 'Air Act' Ends In Fatal Crash

Many Reds Willing To Work For Nazis Before Stalingrad

NUERNBERG (AP)—Before the Stalingrad campaign, captured Russians were willing to work for the Germans as spies against their own people, a United States war-crimes court here was told today.

After the debacle of Gen. Friedrich von Paulus' 6th German Army—turning point in the eastern war—the Russian prisoners changed their attitude and stubbornly refused such assignments, the court was told.

This was brought out in a trial brief submitted by Alexandre G. Hardy against Walter Schellenberg, former confidante of Gestapo Chief Heinrich Himmler. Schellenberg, on trial for war crimes, was the instigator of "Operation Zepplin" in which the Russians were trained to act for the German spy corps.

In the beginning, he said, many Russians were willing to quit their prisoner status and take the jobs because "they were treated extremely well. They were shown the best possible kind of treatment."

Mere seconds after the upper picture was made of an AT-6 plane "buzzing" the field at an air show in Vallejo, Calif., the plane's right wing hit a pole (right, foreground) and crashed, killing the pilot, Edward C. Frey, and his passenger, Thomas R. Miller. Frey's body lies pinned in the wreckage (lower picture) of the plane he piloted in an unscheduled "air act" to "give the crowd a thrill." Some of the several hundred spectators who witnessed the tragedy were barely missed by the crashing plane. Frey was not participating in the air show.

Yugoslavians Say Romanians Trying To Overthrow Tito

LONDON (AP)—Communist Yugoslavia has accused Communist Romania of conducting a "monstrous anti-Yugoslav campaign" and of plotting to overthrow Premier Tito's regime.

The Yugoslav foreign minister, Stanjko Simic, handed the Romanian ambassador in Belgrade a note accusing Romanian officials of urging Yugoslavs to revolt and overthrow Tito, the Yugoslav news agency, Tanjug, reported Wednesday night in a broadcast from Belgrade.

The note singled out Mrs. Ana Pauker, foreign minister of Romania, as one who has "openly called for the elimination of the present state leadership in Yugoslavia."

In addition, the note said, the press, radio and officials of Romania had addressed gross insults and "most shameful expressions" to Tito and the majority of the Yugoslav people.

It was the latest episode in the conflict between Tito and the Russian-dominated Cominform (Communist International Information Bureau).

Biggest Flying Boat Now At Honolulu

HONOLULU (AP)—The new Carolina Mars, largest operational flying boat in the world, is here from Alameda, Calif., having arrived Wednesday after an easy flight of 12 hours and three minutes. The 82½-ton four-engine plane will take off from here Friday on a 4,200-mile non-stop flight to Chicago, where it will be formally commissioned as a United States navy plane.

Faces Treason Trial In U.S.

TOKYO (AP)—Mrs. Iva Tokuroguri d'Aquino, accused of being one of six dulcet-voiced Japanese radio disk jockeys known to U.S. service men in the Pacific as Tokyo Rose, was arrested today.

The specific charge against the U.S.-born Japanese wife of a Portuguese is treasonable activities during the Second World War.

During the war, six English-speaking Japanese women regaled U.S. service men from Alaska to Australia and Hawaii to Kunming with a spy radio program of records plus propaganda and sometimes sexy patter. The nickname Tokyo Rose was applied to all six.

The program was popular with the soldiers for its inaccuracies in detailing military operations, its good selection of records and the sexy remarks.

The 32-year-old Los Angeles-born Japanese woman was arrested on orders from Tom Clark, United States attorney-general.

She was lodged in Sugamo prison, from which she was released last October after authorities had investigated her. She is scheduled to sail for the United States and her San Francisco trial next month.

Mrs. d'Aquino came to Japan shortly before the war started. She was married here.

U.S. Artist Dies

Former Actress Dies

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Helen Lee Worthing, 47, former Broadway stage beauty and film actress, was found dead Wednesday night. Police said death apparently was from natural causes. Her movie career came to a sudden end when she married Dr. Eugene Nelson, Los Angeles negro physician, in 1928. They were divorced in 1935.

More Cars Needed

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—A threatened shortage of railroad cars may curtail lumber shipments from the United States' west coast, but is not expected to force mill closures as in 1947. H. V. Simpson, vice-president of the West Coast Lumbermen's Association, said the car shortage is "serious but not critical."

Canadian Cattle In Seattle Net $15,000 Extra For Seller

SEATTLE—Seattle got its first shipment of Canadian cattle this week and the transaction apparently left everybody happy.

The shipper, O. A. Brown of Edmonton, Alberta, sold 150 steers at Union Stockyards at 26 cents and 26½ cents a pound. He figured he got about $15,000 more than he would have received in Canada.

On the other side of the transaction, the stockyard managers, the commission company involved and wholesalers showed their satisfaction for the shipment brought more meat to a scarce market.

Another shipment of 100 cattle from the same rancher is due next week. In addition, a load of the same number is scheduled from another Canadian raiser.

Freight charges, duties and inspection costs totaled 4 cents a pound on the shipment. The duty on imported cattle is 1½ cents a pound on steers weighing over 700 pounds.

A load of calves received from Brown also were sold, 34 at 29 cents and 31 at 23 cents. Officials at the stockyard said the selling price on calves would not warrant future shipments, since freight rates take all the profits.

Veteran Flier Dies

MIAMI (AP)—Capt. William A. Watson, 52, veteran Pan-American Airways pilot who once taught flying to Charles A. Lindbergh, died here Wednesday. During his 15 years' service with the airline, Winston logged more than 3,000,000 miles aloft and was one of the first pilots to make 100 crossings of the Atlantic.

THAT ROYAL COMMISSION

SHORTLY BEFORE PARLIAMENT PRO-
rogued at Ottawa last month, Mr. Mackenzie King established a Royal Commission on Prices. Its membership comprised a personnel of three. Professor C. A. Curtis of Queen's University is its chairman, and the other two are Mr. H. C. Bois of Montreal, secretary-manager of a large co-operative organization in Quebec, and Mrs. T. W. Sutherland of Parksville, Vancouver Island. The latter is a director of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, was a member of the Royal Commission inquiring into the welfare of the Japanese in wartime camps in British Columbia during 1943 and 1944, and until two years ago she was a resident of Revelstoke.

Regardless of the qualifications of those who constitute the membership of this Royal Commission, thousands of Canadians who enjoy none of the benefits of subsidies of one form or another are pardonably impatient over the apparent lack of practical action on the part of the organization which the Prime Minister set up. Admittedly, a Canadian Press dispatch from Ottawa this week informed harassed and perplexed consumers that this Royal Commission is investigating the costs which enter into the production of a pair of shoes; and none will quibble at the course the enquiry is taking in this direction. On the other hand, however, we submit that a major problem confronting the unorganized or average citizen in Canada today is the continually mounting cost of food under innumerable heads. Housewives from the Pacific to the Atlantic are demanding to know, and quite rightly, what Mr. King's commission proposes to do about it.

After that December day in 1941, when Mr. Donald Gordon set in motion the machinery of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, this and other newspapers and the Canadian people in general for many months virtually exuded a sense of national pride over the inauguration and operation of a policy calculated to prevent the disastrous inflationary effects which caused such havoc to the national economy after the First Great War. Until a few months after the latest global conflict ended, moreover, our friends on the southern side of the 49th parallel were vociferously pointing out the fact that if the United States had followed the Canadian example, much of the viciousness of the neighboring republic's inflationary spiral might have been avoided. Any such references to economic conditions in this Dominion at this stage would have been pitched in a minor key.

All the foregoing boils down to one potent fact. The government at Ottawa, despite all the warnings that were directed to it, allowed itself to be importuned by certain pressure groups which argued that only by the removal of those controls in which they were specifically interested would it be possible for the country's production to meet public demand. To be sure, a good deal of the argument advanced was based on sound premises; but the glaring fact which now stands out predominantly—which we have all along feared—is that the Canadian consumer is being asked to pay for numerous basic commodities a price not much lower than that prevailing in the United States.

Whether it is too late to reimpose those controls calculated to lower—or, at least, prevent further increases in—the price of various staples is a matter toward which the Royal Commission now wrestling with the price of shoes should at once address itself. Action, and prompt action, should be that particular body's watchword.

INCONSOLABLE CONSUL

WITHDRAWAL OF SOVIET CONSULS from the neighboring republic and the forced closing of United States consulates in the U.S.S.R. carries more importance as a gesture of Russian annoyance than as a termination of international dealings. The respective consulate offices in New York, San Francisco and Vladivostok were concerned mainly with matters of trade and commerce between the two countries. Since such trade, however, had been almost at a standstill for some months, due principally to a strict United States control of exports to Soviet Russia, the closing of the offices will not cause a serious loss. Normal diplomatic relations, of course, will still be maintained through the respective embassies.

As a protest against the expulsion of Soviet Consul-General Lomakin for his participation in the Russian school teacher "kidnapping" case, the closing of the consulates will make little impression on the American public. Relations between the two countries have been at a low ebb, and the average citizen of our neighbor to the south will likely be inclined to comment only, "Good riddance." At the same time, the departure of the Russian representatives serves to widen the breach, and a marked improvement of the situation will be necessary to provide the occasion for a resumption of consular contacts. As long as the Soviet clings to its assertion that "the actions of Consul-General Lomakin were directed exclusively in defence of the rights of Soviet citizens,"—causing Mrs. Kasenkina to leap from a third-story window to escape such "defence"—the improvement is not likely to occur. Two widely divergent ways of life have clashed at a point of contact involving the life of one woman, with the inevitable result.

AROUSING HOPES AGAIN

UNOFFICIAL WORD FROM LONDON that Premier Stalin has proposed that a Big Four conference be held in Berlin to settle the former Reich capital's currency problem gives promise that a way may be found to remove this stumbling block to peaceful progress. The difficulties regarding currency in Berlin came to a head several months ago when Russia insisted that money issued from the Soviet zone should be used throughout the Berlin area, including the sectors administered by France, Britain and the United States. The latter two countries, already having brought out a new, stabilized currency for use in their combined zones in western Germany, retallied by introducing their money into the western sectors of Berlin. Russia answered with the blockade, and the situation has deteriorated ever since.

The solution to the currency problem would not remove the numerous other questions which becloud the German future, particularly the conflict arising from the Soviet's attempts to form a Communized state in the east, and the West's efforts to inaugurate a democratic regime in their zones. But it would at least remove one of the most pressing issues from the point of contact of the occupying powers, and help in restoring the economy of the metropolis to a more normal condition.

There is hope, too, that agreement on this subject might lead to agreement on wider questions. But such agreement will not be concluded at any conference—if indeed there is to be one—at which the Soviet delegates present adamant demands and then walk out when they are not accepted by their conferees. Negotiation, not ultimatum, is the gate. And compromise, not stubbornness, is the key.

NOT AGAIN!

A TORONTO NEWS ITEM WHICH TOLD of truckloads of fresh vegetables being dumped and burned in that city will certainly have aroused the questions of hard-pressed housewives to whom the current price of garden produce appears exorbitantly high. One trucker complained that distributors had offered him only three cents a head for cabbage—a proposition that carried so little incentive to trade that he preferred to dump the whole load. If such things are really happening in the Ontario capital they should provide material for an immediate investigation. Deliberate destruction of foodstuffs of any kind in these days is waste that verges on the criminal. This generation has seen Brazilian coffee burned in bonfires, Canadian wheat burned as domestic fuel, and other uneconomic phenomena. But we should not be accused of over-optimism in wondering if we cannot do better than that.

THE IDEA IS GOOD, BUT . . .

IT IS THE SUGGESTION OF THE INTERNATIONAL BAR ASSOCIATION, meeting in The Hague, that British Commonwealth citizenship be made available to citizens of countries outside the Empire on a reciprocal basis. Such a move, the legal delegates believe, might be the first step toward promoting tolerance and good neighborliness between countries. Expanded to the ultimate, we suggest, the scheme could bring the peoples of the world closer to the brotherhood of man than they have ever been.

But there is a catch in the proposal. In a materialistic world its implementation would depend upon a quid pro quo which furnished an adequate exchange of benefits. We are not concerned with the Gilbert and Sullivan type who, "in spite of all temptations to belong to other nations, remained an Englishman." The argument could apply to any nationality. And we are inclined to question the possibility of an American, for instance, being seized with the desirability of sharing citizenship with a Japanese should the eventual government of a reconstructed Nippon offer such a reciprocal arrangement. Not that the ideal is not inspiring. But before it could be translated into actuality, it would be necessary for man to recognize his fellowman as a fellowman. In the final analysis, we are all citizens of the world. But our actions, individual and national, too frequently appear aimed at destroying appreciation of that fact.

LOOKING FOR A RAINBOW

IT IS POSSIBLE THAT ONE CATEGORY of people, and one alone, has enjoyed the weather prevalent on Vancouver Island and throughout British Columbia during this season, which the calendar would have us believe is summer. They are the men in the forestry department who are gratified by the low fire loss for 1948. But even these have their misgivings. We are told that the present "bright" outlook may be altered by a change to hot, dry weather during the remaining six weeks of the fire season.

Of course, British Columbians, who owe more than 30 cents of every dollar of the province's total wealth to the forests, should be delighted with the condition of affairs. The slightly mildewed holiday-makers, pale and rain-washed as they return from vacations, should be sounding peans of praise to the heavens which have sent down the fire-preventing deluges. All of us should be happily "Singing in the Rain." Unquestionably we should be grateful. But to suggest that we are—well, who would we be kidding?

Scandinavia

By Thomas Barman in London Calling

WAR; THE THREAT of invasion, the danger of foreign occupation: these are the things that the people of northern Europe are talking about today.

There was a time when the Scandinavian countries were known as Europe's peaceful corner—the sort of corner where nothing very much happened. There might be stories about wars and other unpleasant events in the newspapers—but all these were things that happened a long way away. They did not affect the fixed and settled routine of people's lives. But now all that has changed. The German occupation of Norway and Denmark, which lasted for five years, has made the people of Europe's peaceful corner acutely sensitive to any change in the international temperature.

I SUPPOSE EVERYBODY HOPED and expected that things would shake down again to the same old pattern after VE-Day—the pattern of peaceful neutrality, of aloofness from the struggles that went on in other parts of the world. If that was the hope, it has not been fulfilled.

Instead of peace, there has been friction and argument and rising tension between the Soviet Union and the Western powers. And the dream of neutrality is being shattered by the stark realization that the Scandinavian north may be forced, after all—and very much against its inclinations—to take sides. Even more shocking is the realization that Scandinavia—which for more than a century has been, as it were, in the wings of European history—may well find itself in the centre of a new international storm.

I got my first impression of these fears on board the steamer that took us from Harwich to Esbjerg. "I don't know if I am wise to be going back home to Copenhagen," said the pleasant young man who sat next to me at the luncheon table. "After all, Denmark may be occupied within a few weeks." My soothing words had not the slightest effect upon him.

A FEW DAYS LATER, I WAS dining with some friends in Copenhagen. Among them was an earnest politician, left-wing in his views, and with a first-class record in the resistance movement. He pointed to the hostile tone of the Soviet Press towards the Scandinavian north. "We shall be occupied by the Russians this autumn," he said; "I am sure of it. I can feel it in my bones."

Our arguments made no impression upon him. In his mind the event was as inevitable as the changing of the seasons.

These were typical of the remarks that I heard, over and over again, in the course of my visit to Scandinavia. The shadow of a great fear lies across this part of Europe. It is under its influence—the influence of this fear—that the people of Denmark, Norway and Sweden are now arguing among themselves about the wisdom of joining with Britain and France in strengthening the foundations of western Europe.

AT FIRST—THAT IS TO SAY, immediately after Mr. Bevin had made his speech about Western Union in the House of Commons—the arguments were rather wild, and were often very wide of the mark. People argued that the present equilibrium between war and peace was so unstable that any change—such as a Scandinavian agreement to join the Western Alliance—might result in war.

They talked of a Russian invasion of Bornholm—the Danish island in the Baltic that lies half-way between the coasts of Sweden and Germany. They talked of Russia's new position in the Arctic, and of the common frontier between Norway and the Soviet Union. They imagined all sorts of Russian steps as the consequence of any Scandinavian move towards the West. Some people argued that perhaps it was best, after all, to seek safety in an inconspicuous neutrality, and to avoid taking sides.

THAT, BROADLY SPEAKING, was the attitude of the Swedish Government. And in spite of recent events it has hardly changed; although there are signs that a great many people in Sweden are out of sympathy with the policy of their Government.

While recent events—as I have just explained—have apparently left the Swedish Government unmoved, it is evident that they have had a deep influence upon the Norwegian and Danish Governments, and also upon public opinion in these two countries. The most important of these recent events—most important in its effect upon public opinion—was the change-over, in Czechoslovakia, where the Communist party is now in full and undisputed control. And then, of course, there was the Finnish alliance with the Soviet Union—signed at the request of Stalin himself.

NOW ALL THESE IDEAS—provoked by international events—were, in a sense, fairly negative. But out of them grew the more positive conception that since Scandinavia is part of western Europe; it might be necessary for the Scandinavian states, just like the Low Countries, and in their own interests, to enter into closer and more permanent relations with Britain and France.

That does not mean that the Scandinavian states—or any one of them—will join the Western Alliance on the same footing as Belgium and the Netherlands. As Mr. Bevin told the House of Commons on Jan. 22, there are other forms of association. And it is these forms of association that are now being explored in Oslo and Copenhagen.

Will They Stay Up There?

Reporting From Behind The Curtain

By ALEXANDER WERTH,

Moscow Correspondent for the Manchester Guardian, reprinted in Public Opinion, London.

OF the foreign press I would say this. Of my seven years as a correspondent in the Soviet Union, I, unlike some of my colleagues, found the first six years extremely interesting and illuminating.

TRAVEL NOW LIMITED

I also found that, by phrasing one's messages with sufficient care, one could still present an accurate, if not always complete, picture of the main trends of thought and of the principal events in Russia. I traveled a great deal inside Russia, and knew large numbers of Russians. I could cope with the censorship fairly well.

But of my seven years in Russia the last year has been the most difficult of all. Travel has, in fact, been limited to a small area around Moscow, and to Leningrad and perhaps to Kiev. Contacts have become fewer and fewer.

Since December expenses have become very high. And though it was still extremely interesting to study the papers, and especially the periodicals, this was not enough for the "live" reporting I had done in the past. The censorship was something of a gamble. For reasons often hard to explain it varied in severity. But on the whole it became worse than before.

It must be said that the Soviet attitude to foreign correspondents changed very sharply for the worse after the Moscow Conference of Foreign Ministers. For this there were three reasons. First, the conviction the Russians formed that with the worsening of international relations "almost all capitalist newspapers will now be anti-Soviet."

CONCRETE REASONS

There were two more concrete reasons. One was the interview given by Stalin to Mr. Stassen in the course of which he said, in effect, that almost all foreign correspondents in Moscow were only there to cause mischief whenever they could.

Stalin's opinion was, from then on, pretty well accepted as the party line on Moscow correspondents. The other reason was that, of the many diplomatic correspondents who accompanied the British, American, and French delegations to Moscow, nearly every one, on returning home, thought fit to write up his "discovery" of Russia in a long series of articles.

Needless to say some of these articles were full of malicious, mean, and plainly ignorant nonsense. They were no better, in fact, than some recent Russian reports on Britain or America!

After that the Soviet authorities clamped down on the Moscow correspondent harder than ever before.

The Russian official view of correspondents seems to be roughly this:

"Correspondents of Communist papers are of little value because the Communist papers present the official Soviet line anyway. For correspondents who are consistently hostile our censorship will make life a misery. Correspondents who are reasonably fair will, more often than not, get into trouble with their capitalist employers sooner or later. Therefore, correspondents of capitalist newspapers are, especially while the present tension lasts, of little or no value to us."

INCREDIBLE

In these conditions the number of special correspondents has been steadily declining in the past year, while the three principal agencies continue to maintain offices in Moscow largely as a matter of routine.

It seems incredible that a great country of such enormous interest to the world and with so many great and positive achievements should persist indefinitely in hiding itself from the outside world. But that is the policy for the present.

They Explored The Island

From the Illustrated London News of Feb. 18, 1965.

IN May last an expedition was formed to obtain better knowledge of the interior of Vancouver Island, and also with a view to the discovery of agriculture, land, and minerals. Mr. Frederick Whymper, who was attached to this expedition, has forwarded to this country a summary of discoveries.

STARTED AT COWICHAN

The expedition started from Victoria on the 7th of June in Her Majesty's gunboat Grappler, and commenced its work at the Great Cowichan Lake, returning by the same vessel from Nanaimo on the 21st of October. They crossed the island in several directions, and made lateral deviations at numerous points, passing altogether over 1,340 miles of new country, and exploring, in a tolerably complete manner, the southern half. Of this distance, nearly 600 miles was traveled on foot, more than 700 by canoe, and the remainder by raft.

In the discovery of minerals the expedition met with great success, finding almost immediately valuable veins of copper, apparently inexhaustible in extent; gold was found on all bars of the Cowichan River up to three cents per pan, with indications of richer diggings; and this was followed by the discovery of very rich ironstone in large quantities.

In the neighborhood of the Cowichan River they found open tracts of agricultural land, from 300 to 500 acres in extent, ready for the plough; in other districts yet larger spaces; and altogether many thousand acres. Traces of nickel and plumbago were met with; but probably the most valuable of all the discoveries was that of bituminous coal on the coast, close to deep water, and the outcropping of which showed a seam more than a foot in thickness.

Many tracts were thinly wooded with scattered maple from 12 to 20 inches in diameter, and others more heavily with forests of the most significant spars of Douglas, hemlock, and white pine, the latter, from its rarity on the coast, being of great value.

Dr. Brown, the leader of the expedition, discovered an entirely new pine; and they brought down to Victoria, for carving purpose, a fine log of arbutus, which in the interior attains to considerable dimensions.

CERTAIN FORTUNE

To quote words of Dr. Brown, "the spars and lumber alone, with their capabilities of being floated to the sea, would prove a certain fortune to any man with capital enough to buy an axe and a grindstone."

Many edible wild fruits were found, and a large collection of interesting seeds was made. Of the larger kinds of animals, they saw and shot deer and elk, the latter being in great droves; bears, beavers, and wolves were very numerous; martens and raccoons were also plentiful; grouse and wild ducks are described as being found to any extent.

CHAIN OF LAKES

The number of lakes in the interior is very considerable; at one place, from Comox to Alberni, a chain of seven reach nearly across the island—the largest of these is 22 miles in length. On Barclay Sound two rivers yielded good prospects of gold, paying at the rate of two or three dollars per pan per day, and which, if worked by the usual machinery, would yield a much larger extent.

The most important of the discoveries, in its immediate effect on the colony, was the finding of gold on the Sooke and Leech rivers. This almost depopulated Victoria for a time, and, within a few weeks of being known, these diggings had yielded $40,000, the government alone receiving $900 from the sale of licenses. The gold from these rivers sold at $20 per ounce.

CONSIDERABLE HARDIPIES

Towards the end the expedition experienced considerable hardships from being imperfectly supplied with provisions, and near Barclay Sound had a narrow escape from coming to grief, owing to the recent chastisements of the Indians in that part by some of our gunboats. They, however, happily escaped all accidents, and arrived in safety at Victoria, having in their discoveries surpassed their expectations.

THE American-Soviet consulate clash is the sharp, quick shower which helps clear the air, rather than the cloudburst which does heavy damage.

When Washington several days ago asked Moscow to recall the Soviet consul-general, Jakob Lomakin, for "highly improper" activities in the case of the refugee Soviet schoolteachers in New York, it was a foregone conclusion that the Russians would dramatize the situation to save face. Thus it occasions no surprise to see them close not only their big New York consulate but their San Francisco headquarters as well. It was equally certain they would retaliate by closing the American consulate in Russia—that of Vladivostok.

DROP IN TRADE

Actually neither country will suffer much materially through the transaction. Consulates deal mainly with trade, and there has been a heavy drop in Russo-American business since United States export controls were imposed last March.

So far as concerns the consulate in Vladivostok, it was so hamstrung by the Reds that it didn't amount to much. They even threw brilliant floodlights on the building to make sure that callers at night could be identified.

The break affects the field of commerce rather than diplomacy. Both countries continue to maintain their embassies so that affairs of state will be transacted as heretofore.

NO SIGN OF SUSPENSION

Diplomatic quarters in Washington don't expect the consulate imbroglio to have much effect on other relations between Moscow and the United States. There is no sign at this writing that there will be a suspension of the negotiations among the big four looking to a solution of the German issue.

In fact an informed diplomatic source in London says Stalin has proposed a Berlin conference of big-four financial experts to work out an agreement for control of the German capital's currency—a red-hot issue.

True, authoritative allied sources in Berlin see little hope of success for such a currency conference, unless there is a prior agreement on principles by the governments of the big four. Still, any conference which keeps the peace ball rolling is all to the good.

Maybe things will move more smoothly as the result of the Soviet-American consulate affair. Washington's firm stand is calculated to inspire some degree of Russian respect. Maybe it will—who knows?

QUARANTINE

Toronto Globe and Mail
The law can deal with Communists when they break the law. Otherwise, communism should be dealt with like any other virulent and contagious disease. The symptoms should be studied and sensible men should shun those who carry the marks.

DIFFERENT TESTS

Calgary Herald
Some countries may produce wonderful athletes, but athleticism is not the test of national strength. Hungary got more points than Britain, and Czechoslovakia more than Canada. But Britain looks like a pretty good place to the Hungarians, and Canada looks like a pretty good place to the Czechs.

DEMOCRACY AT WORK

Ottawa Citizen
Except by their own choice no serfdom can be imposed on the people of Canada as long as national political gatherings are unfolded before their eyes in the press as were the proceedings of the Liberal convention which closed here on Saturday. The most democratic aspect of this gathering was the unlimited privilege accorded newspapermen and the honesty and scope with which they availed themselves of it.

CRITICISM FROM WITHIN

Windsor Daily Star
Among the echoes of the National Liberal Convention which are lingering longest, high place must be given public reaction to the speech made before the delegates by Hon. C. G. Power, former Minister for Air. Briefly, his submission was that government has been getting out of the hands of the people, and for that matter out of control of the elected M.P.s, even those who give their allegiance to the party in power. Major Power would restore to the people's representatives the right of final decision, and at the same time would give those M.P.s more say in the formation of policies.

Maharajah Agrees To Make Good Funds Reported Misused

NEW DELHI (CP)—The Indian states ministry Wednesday night announced settlement of the dispute in which abdication of the Maharajah of Baroda was called for by his state legislative assembly.

The maharajah, reputed to be one of the richest men in the world, agreed to grant "complete responsible government without any reservations" and to make good state funds he is alleged to have used improperly, a ministry communiqué said.

Owner of 40 race horses in Britain, the maharajah agreed to appoint a council of state—comprising his first wife, Maharani Shanta Devi, the prime minister and the law minister—to exercise all his powers during his absence from the state.

The state legislature which demanded he abdicate had asserted that the maharajah, who three years ago married a second wife, Sita Devi, had misused $10,000,000 of the Baroda state funds on a six-week spending spree.

The maharajah has traveled extensively in Britain and the United States in the last 18 months, returning to India recently when the charge was made.

The communiqué also said the 40-year-old maharajah agreed:

1. That the state ministry should have the accounts examined and determine whether any amounts are outstanding.

2. To leave the Sardar Patel, minister of Indian states, a decision on the question of the Baroda privy purse, raised four years ago from £172,500 ($690,000) to £375,000.

The settlement was the result of talks during the last few days at which the maharajah, Patel and V. P. Menon, secretary to the state ministry, were present.

Immigrants Coming To Canada At Rate Rivaling '20s Boom

OTTAWA (CP)—New inhabitants are pouring into Canada in a flood that rivals that of the boom years in the 1920s.

Not since 1929—the peak year before the destructive effects of the depression dried up the stream—have immigrants arrived in greater numbers than right now.

In the first half of the year, the immigration department reports, 57,275 moved into Canada—almost equaling the 64,000 figure for all of last year. The half-year figure compares with 21,413 for the same period of 1947.

The new arrivals include independent farmers, close relatives of Canadian residents and farm and other types of workers brought in by the labor department, in addition to business people and others coming on their own.

Among the current arrivals, the farm class predominates, followed by skilled labor, unskilled and semi-skilled workers, female domestics and trading and clerical persons in that order.

Since the war, the bulk of the immigrants has gone to Ontario and Quebec.

Ontario has absorbed 103,000 of the 215,000 who have come in since then, while Quebec has taken 31,000, next are British Columbia with 25,000, the Maritimes with 18,000, Alberta with 15,000, Manitoba with 11,000 and Saskatchewan with 9,000.

Monogamy Best, Says U.B.C. Head

CALGARY (CP)—Experiments notwithstanding, the monogamous family unit had survived through the ages as the best means of satisfying human desires and meeting needs of a happy society, Dr. N. A. M. MacKenzie, president of the University of British Columbia, said Wednesday night.

He was addressing delegates attending the fifth biennial convention of the Canadian Home Economics Association.

Describing the home as "the place where a man and woman can take their hair down and leave off company faces," the president said human nature had remained basically the same. Human nature's needs had remained the same. Modern industrial urban centres might change habits, attitudes and ways of living in general as compared with a generation ago, but home economists must adopt realistic attitudes toward consideration of home problems resulting.

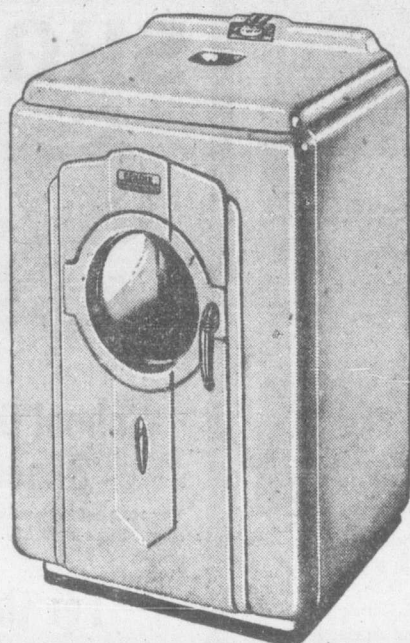

Special committee meetings took up most of the morning session Wednesday with general discussion following in the afternoon.

Wheel Useless, Plane Down Safe

SEATTLE (AP)—A Northwest Airlines plane with 14 aboard landed safely at Bow Lake airport Wednesday after circling because of reported trouble with its nose wheel.

The plane, on the Yakima-Portland route, was diverted to the Bow Lake field when a warning light in the control panel showed the nose wheel was not latched properly.

Al Wash, Northwest publicity man, said the nose wheel would come down, but that the light showed it was not locked.

Neither Company, Union Happy About General Motors Wage Plan

By CANADIAN PRESS

A third of a million General Motors workers in the United States are keeping even with the cost of living in an experiment to prevent the buying value of their pay envelopes shrinking because of rising prices.

Effective in September, they will get a pay boost of three cents an hour, making their hourly wage $1.65. Under their union agreement their wages are tied to the official cost-of-living index. The index has gone up. Their pay is going up to match the gain.

But is everybody happy? No. A spokesman for the United Automobile Workers declared "workers cannot be bribed with the wooden nickels of inflation." Corporation officials probably aren't happy either. Only last month General Motors raised passenger-car prices 8 per cent. The latest three-cent pay increase will add something like $20,000,000 to payrolls. That may come to about $10 on each automobile and truck produced this year.

Some economists see a vicious circle in the merry-go-round of a higher cost of living leading to higher wages, which in turn add to spending money, which forces prices up, which causes the cost of living to go higher until it boosts wages again.

There is the other side of the coin. The General Motors contract provides for pay cuts when the cost of living drops. Right now the cost of living is weighted heavily with food prices. And food over the next few months is believed to be headed for a drop.

MARKETS WEDNESDAY

Trading at New York Wednesday was slow and price changes for the most part were indecisive. Toronto's business was very light, with prices generally easier though western oils were steady.

Victorian Killed In Bomber Crash At Scottish Airdrome

A 23-year-old Victoria R.C.N. pilot, Lieut. G. Alan Carter, was killed in an airplane crash this week at Lossiemouth, Scotland, it was reported here today.

Lieut. Carter leaves his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Carter, 1773 Fairfield Road; two sisters, Mrs. L. E. Kennedy, 3420 Douglas Street, and Mrs. S. Ginnham, Vancouver; two nephews in Victoria and other relatives in England.

He was one of eight killed when an R.A.F. Lancaster crashed while landing at the Scottish air station. Although the bomber burst into flames in the crash, all bodies were recovered.

The Victoria flier attended Margaret Jenkins School and Victoria High School and was active in the Royal Canadian Sea Cadet Corps here. At the age of 18, he joined the navy in 1943 as an ordinary seaman, graduating with his commission from King's College Halifax two years later. He saw war service aboard the minesweeper H.M.C.S. Winnipeg.

He had been taking a pilot's course at the air station when the crash occurred.

EDINBURGH (Reuter)—Mayor Robert Hope Ross of Montreal West collapsed and died in a newsreel theatre here Wednesday night. He was 53.

Ross, accompanied by his wife, had been staying at a Glasgow hotel and went to Edinburgh for the day to visit the International Music and Drama Festival.

He was president of the Jeffrey Manufacturing Co., Montreal.

Vincent Astors Here For Three-Day Visit On Flying Holiday

Visitors in Victoria today are Vincent Astor, head of the famed and rich Astor family in the U.S., and his wife, Mary Cushing Astor, of New York.

The Astors arrived here Wednesday afternoon aboard their own luxuriously-appointed plane, piloted by H. G. White, former R.C.A.F. pilot. Mr. and Mrs. Astor plan to remain here until Saturday before flying off to continue their holiday in the northwestern U.S.

The plane in which they reached here from San Francisco in four hours and 45 minutes is a ten-seater Grumman amphibian specially fitted out with a bar, carpets and chesterfields. Mr. Astor, who will continue from here to Spokane, Lake Louise and Glacier National Park, is a grand uncle of Gavin Astor, who, with his wife, Lady Irene, paid a visit to Victoria a short time ago.

$75,000,000 FORTUNE

Vincent Astor is a great-grandson of the John Jacob Astor who arrived in the U.S. as a German immigrant boy in 1784 with five golden guineas in his pocket and set to work to begin the building of the vast family fortune. The present head of the Astor family inherited a fortune estimated at $75,000,000.

Among his many activities, Mr. Astor is chairman of the board of Newsweek magazine, owner of the $5,000,000 St. Regis Hotel, built by his father, owner of a New York City estate, a 3,000-acre estate on the Hudson River and a showplace in Bermuda.

He is a veteran of two wars, during which he served in the navy. In 1943 he presented his $2,000,000 yacht Nourmahal, after which his plane is named, to the U.S. government for war service.

He took his place at the head of the Astor family early in life when his father, John Jacob Astor III, was lost with the Titanic. At that time he took over his father's business domain and was promptly labeled "the richest boy in the world."

His R.C.A.F. veteran pilot, Mr. White, flew for Time and Life magazines before starting work for Mr. Astor a year and a half ago.

Trying To Circle Globe In Jeep, Pair Picked Up By Tanker

NEW YORK (AP)—The tanker New Jersey reported Wednesday night it had picked up Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Carlin—drifting 270 miles from New York in the Atlantic in an amphibious jeep—and was taking them to Halifax.

The U.S. Coast Guard said the tanker reported the craft had been drifting for 10 days.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlin set out early this month in a surplus U.S. army amphibious jeep on what they said was a round-the-world tour.

Their first destination was the Azores.

They last were seen Aug. 11, 150 miles at sea, by a U.S. destroyer.

The story of their attempt at globe-circling was told by a public relations executive here early this month after the navy ship had spotted them bobbing in the ocean.

Carlin and his wife halted the destroyer and shouted a message: "Notify 'Lynch' at a New York telephone number."

MESSAGE RECEIVED

Ware Lynch, president of a public relations firm, later disclosed he had received the navy's message. He then told the story of Carlin's attempt "to do what everybody tells him he's crazy to try."

Carlin, Lynch said, is an Australian mining engineer who was serving in China when he got the idea of making an army/amphibious truck into a sea-going craft.

During the war, amphibious jeeps were used to shuttle men and supplies from ship to shore in landing operations.

Carlin came to the United States and bought the surplus craft for $901. Then, early this June, he married the former All-nore Arone, 29, of Boston.

Together they prepared for the attempt at circling the globe by land and sea.

Carlin spent $9,000 and many hours of work converting the amphibian into a sea-going craft.

Petroglyph Park

Formally Created

The provincial government which last week from Canadian Collieries (Dunsmuir) Ltd. formally received the deed for 3.84 acres of land south of Nanaimo has formally set the area aside as Petroglyph Park and classed it as a class A park.

The area contains some of the finest petroglyphs on Vancouver Island.

Prince Rupert Girl Crowned Miss P.N.E.

Margaret Brain, 17-year-old beauty from Prince Rupert, was crowned "Miss P.N.E. of 1948" by Finance Minister Herbert Anscomb Wednesday night after the judges had selected her from 14 of British Columbia's most lovely girls.

Nineteen-year-old Berna Franklin of 1244 Tattersall Drive, who last week was crowned "Miss Victoria," was second and New Westminster's beauty queen, Gerry Arseneault, was third.

The shapely northern lass, a five-foot-four brunette, will reign over the Pacific National Exhibition for its remaining 10 days and then will go to Hollywood for a screen test and a special dinner with movie star Alan Ladd.

Brigadier Cabeldu Going To Belgium For War Anniversary

Brigadier F. N. Cabeldu, one of Victoria's most distinguished soldiers who commanded the Canadian Fourth Brigade in the liberation of Bruges, Belgium, in World War II, is returning to the scene of that battle next month.

He has accepted an invitation from the Belgian government to take part in anniversary ceremonies Sept. 12 marking the liberation of Bruges on that date in 1944.

Brigadier Cabeldu has received leave of absence from his duties as city alderman to make the trip which will be paid by the Belgian government. He will make the trip by air and will be away approximately two weeks.

In granting him leave of absence, Acting Mayor J. D. Hunter said his position as city delegate to the annual convention of the Union of B.C. Municipalities at Harrison Hot Springs Sept. 7, 8 and 9 will be filled by another alderman later.

In the liberation of the Belgian city from the Germans, Brigadier Cabeldu's brigade consisted of the Royal Regiment of Canada, the Royal Hamilton Light Infantry and the Essex Scottish.

The battle has been described as a major engagement and taking part in it with the Fourth Brigade was the Fourth Armored Division commanded by Major-General H. S. Foster.

Exchange Teacher Returns From London

Physical training and singing are emphasized in English schools with splendid results, says Miss Mary Saich, who arrived in the city a week ago after spending the past year in London on the teacher exchange plan.

Miss Saich, who for eight years taught in her former home town, Saskatoon, Sask., is staying with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Saich, 2972 Wascana Street.

At the present time the London educational system is being reorganized and the age for children leaving school has been extended from 14 to 15 years, according to Miss Saich.

The petite miss was a supply teacher and taught at four different schools, her pupils ranging from five to 11 years of age. "At first the children and I had a little difficulty in understanding each other, though later I began to feel that I was acquiring quite an English accent," she said with a smile.

While in England Miss Saich took advantage of opportunities to travel and before returning to Canada visited in Wales and Scotland.

"Boys and girls 17 and 18 years old in England seem to acquire a more cultural education than our Canadian youths," Miss Saich pointed out.

"Perhaps one might give as a reason the fact that in England the younger people have more opportunity to attend good plays, concerts and fine art museums," she added.

Although she is happy to be back in Canada, Miss Saich expresses the hope that she will return to England.

The adventurous teacher also taught school for two years in the Arctic.

Approximately 100 Eskimo and Indian children attended classes in a mission school where they were taught subjects most useful to them.

"The children were very quick to learn, but slow at remembering their lessons," Miss Saich said.

With her parents, Miss Saich is spending several days with friends at White Rock, B.C. On her return she will begin teaching duties at one of the Saanich schools.

Naval Officer, Bride Motor South

PO. Photographer Norman Edward Keziere, R.C.N., and his bride, the former Jean Yvonne McRae.

Motoring south on their honeymoon, following their wedding at Our Lady of Lourdes Church early Friday evening, are PO. and Mrs. Norman Keziere.

The bride, the former Jean Yvonne McRae, is the only daughter of J. C. McRae, 1445 Ocean View Road. Her groom is the youngest son of M. J. Keziere, 2599 Penrhyn Street.

For the ceremony performed by Father McNamara, the bride chose a gown of glistening white satin made with sheer net yoke, lily point sleeves and flared peplum over the graceful skirt, slightly en train. Her silk net fingertip veil was caught to her head with a beaded tiara and she carried scarlet rosebuds, white sweet peas and heather in her bouquet. Misses Kay Wells and E. Richards, bridal attendants, wore identical bouquets of blue and peach satin, featuring net yokes, fitted bodices and bustle effect at the skirt backs. They carried loose Colonial bouquets of sweet peas, carnations and maiden hair fern.

Little Marjorie Keziere, niece of the groom, was flower girl in an old-fashioned gown of apple-green taffeta, with which she wore a yellow floral headdress. Yellow carnations and mauve sweet peas fashioned her bouquet.

Victor Keziere was best man. J. McRae, brother of the bride, and Elmer Dodds, seated guests.

Devised Meat Loaf

Two pounds ground beef, 2 cups soft bread crumbs, 3 tablespoons prepared mustard, 2 tablespoons horseradish, ¼ cup minced onion, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 1½ teaspoons salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, 2 eggs (beaten), ¼ cup catsup.

Combine all ingredients thoroughly. Shape into loaf and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for about 50 minutes. Baste occasionally with dripping. Yield: Ten to 12 servings.

Dried Fruits—Pureed cooked prunes or dried apricots are often called for in making whips or other light desserts. One cup of uncooked dried fruit yields about one cup of puree. The secret is to cook the dried fruit a little longer than usual and then force it through a colander or sieve.

One-quarter cup butter, 3 cups sifted sugar, 1 package chocolate bits (melted), ½ cup evaporated milk, dash of salt, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 8 marshmallows (quartered).

Cream butter with 1 cup sugar. Beat in melted chocolate bits which have been cooled. Add remaining sugar alternately with milk. Stir in salt and vanilla. Beat until smooth and creamy. Add marshmallows after frosting sides of cake.

Butter Cream Filling—Two tablespoons softened butter, 1 cup sifted sugar, dash of salt, ½ teaspoon vanilla, 1 to 2 tablespoons cream.

Cream butter, sugar, salt and vanilla. Gradually add cream, continuing to beat until mixture is smooth and of spreading consistency. Spread between layers.

Tomatoes, Now Plentiful,
Delicious In Jams, Relishes

Every store is overflowing with big red tomatoes so the time has come to speak fluently about them. Tomatoes have won a definite place in the menus of Canadians and no other food can compete. Tomatoes may be on the table three meals a day and welcome at each one. Tomato juice is served at breakfast, soup or salad at lunch, may appear again at dinner. Served raw or canned they are equally good. They also make a delectable jam and various spicy relishes.

If this indispensable vegetable is to be ready for use during the winter months it must be canned or made into relishes now.

The home economists of the consumer section, Dominion Department of Agriculture, suggest a quick, easy way to can tomatoes and a couple of recipes that are a bit out of the ordinary.

SOLID PACK TOMATOES

Blanch tomatoes 15 to 60 seconds, cold dip, remove stem and peel. Quarter or leave whole. Pack, pressing down until tomatoes are covered with their own juice. Leave ¼ inch headspace in glass sealers or ½ inch in tin cans. Add 1 teaspoon salt per quart. Process in boiling water bath, pints or 20-oz. cans 30 minutes, quarts or 28-oz. cans 35 minutes.

TOMATO CONSERVE

Four cups tomatoes (about 10 medium tomatoes), 3 cups sugar, 1 lemon, 1 cup raisins, ¼ cup preserved ginger.

Wash, remove core, peel and cut tomatoes in quarters before measuring. Cook 10 minutes, add sugar, thinly-sliced lemon and raisins, cook 10 minutes. Add preserved ginger, cut in small pieces, and continue cooking 5 minutes, or to jam consistency. Pour into hot sterilized glasses, cool and seal.

FRUIT TAMALE

Eight large or 12 medium-sized, ripe tomatoes (3 lbs.), 1½ cups coarsely-chopped peaches, 1½ cups chopped pears, 2 cups chopped apples, 1½ cups chopped onions, 1 cup chopped celery, 2 tablespoons whole mixed pickling spice, 2½ cups brown sugar, 2 teaspoons salt, 1½ cups cider or blended vinegar, 1 small hot red pepper (2 tablespoons chopped) or 6 small dried chili peppers.

Combine chopped vegetables and fruits. Tie spices (including dried chili peppers, if used) loosely in a cheesecloth bag. Add spice bag, sugar and salt to vinegar, bring to boiling point and add other ingredients. Cook, uncovered, until thickened—about 45 minutes, stirring occasionally. Remove spice bag, pack in hot sterilized jars, cool and seal. Yield: about 4 pints.

Shrimp And Rice
A La Napoleon

Buy one pound of green (raw, that is) shrimp for two people. Wash shrimp in running water.

Peel off the shells with the fingers. Then with a sharp knife, make an incision down the back of each shrimp and wash out the vein. Put all in a small bowl and cover with milk. Let stand 10 minutes. Take milk-soaked shrimp from both and roll in flour to which a mite of salt and paprika have been added. Melt four tablespoons butter or margarine in a skillet. Add shrimp using some care. Turn so they brown on all sides. Remove. Add a tablespoon or two of flour to drippings in the skillet and let brown, but that doesn't mean burn. Add water to make a gravy. Season with salt, pepper, garlic salt, if you like, Worcestershire sauce, a dash of tobacco and any other seasoning you happen to like. Cook, stirring until smooth and tastes just right.

Put the sautéed shrimp back into the gravy to become bubbly hot. In the meantime have cooking in boiling water three-fourths cup rice. When just tender, turn cooked rice out into a colander and rinse by running hot water over it. Put a small piece of butter in the saucepan and turn the drained rice back into the saucepan on top of the melted butter or margarine. Place over a languid fire and shake the saucepan to steam out any moisture left in the rice.

Make downy beds of the fluffy rice on a platter and divide the shrimps equally for the number of beds you have made. Place shrimp first on rice and then pour the gravy over all. It's a quickie and simply delicious.

Double Flavor Lemonade Discussed For Mission

Six lemons, 1 cup sugar, 1 quart ice and water mixture. Wash and dry lemons. Spread sugar on heavy waxed paper. Roll the lemons over the sugar. Note the lemon aroma the sugar absorbs.

Extract juice from the lemons. Combine with the flavored sugar and stir to dissolve. Add four cups of ice water. Serve in tall glasses. Garnish with lemon slices and mint. (Serves six.)

Potato Dishes Ease Budget

Combine potatoes, corn and bacon into tasty low-cost main dish.

Potatoes are one of the cheapest and most abundant foods available today. As food costs continue to beat down your budget, revive it by using more and more potatoes in your family menus.

POTATOES-ON-THE-PLATTER

Eight baking potatoes, ¼ cup milk, 1 tablespoon butter or fortified margarine, 1 teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon pepper, 1½ cups cooked fresh or canned whole kernel corn, 8 slices bacon, parsley.

Bake potatoes in a moderately hot oven (400 degrees F.) for about 1 hour or until done. Cut potatoes in half and carefully remove potato from skins. Mash potato; beat in milk, butter, salt and pepper. Continue beating until potato is light and fluffy. Stir in corn. Spoon mashed potato-corn mixture into baked potato shells. Partly cook bacon. Cut slices in half.

Place two pieces of bacon on top of each half-potato. Arrange potatoes on heat-resistant glass well-and-tree platter. Return to oven and bake for about 15 minutes longer. Garnish with parsley. (Eight servings.)

POTATOES AU GRATIN

Four tablespoons flour, 4 tablespoons butter, 1 teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, 2 cups milk, 1 cup grated old cheese (about 4 ounces), 4 cups cooked diced potatoes, ¼ cup diced pimiento, ¼ cup dry bread crumbs, 1 tablespoon melted butter or fortified margarine.

Stir flour into the 4 tablespoons of melted butter. Add salt and pepper. Add milk gradually, stirring constantly. Cook sauce for about 20 minutes or until mixture is thick and no starchy taste remains; stir occasionally.

Stir in cheese. Arrange potatoes and pimiento in two-quart baking dish. Pour cheese sauce over potatoes. Mix together bread crumbs and melted butter; spread on top of potatoes. Bake in moderate hot oven (375 degrees F.) about 15 minutes or until slightly browned. (Six servings.)

Tomatoes Are Ready

Apples were, at one time, the most widely used and generally liked fruit but their place has now been usurped by tomatoes. Tomatoes are not only valuable as a food but enjoyed as an appetizer, vegetable, salad, a relish and even as a jam. They also lend delicious flavor to many other foods. For this reason it is well to store away as many canned tomatoes as possible for winter use. Tomatoes may be packed in glass sealers or tin cans. It is wise to fill sealers only to within ½ inch of the top. This will prevent loss of liquid during processing and assure a good seal. Tin cans may be filled to within ¼ inch of the top.

There are three satisfactory methods for canning tomatoes. Each has its good points. Tomatoes, packed by the cold pack method, retain their shape well and may be used as a special treat in winter salads. The juice, when drained off, may be used as an appetizer or in soup.

Cold Pack Method—Blanch tomatoes 15 to 60 seconds, cold dip, remove stem end and peel. Pack. Add 1 teaspoon salt per quart before adding liquid. Cover with hot tomato juice, leaving headspace. (The juice is made from broken or irregular tomatoes cut into pieces, heated to extract the juice and then strained.) Process in the boiling water bath, pints or 20 ounce cans 25 minutes, quarts or 28-ounce cans 30 minutes or glass sealers may be processed in a thermostatically controlled oven at 277 degrees F., pints 35 minutes and quarts 40 minutes. Tin cans should never be processed in the oven.

Solid pack and hot pack methods are both quick and easy but the tomatoes are likely to be quite broken and juicy. Tomatoes, packed by either of these methods, are excellent for general use where there is no special need for having whole tomatoes.

Cheese Barbecues

One and two-third cups baked beans, ½ pound cheese, 2 tablespoons chopped onion, 1 tablespoon fat, salt, pepper, ¼ teaspoon dry mustard, ½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 1 egg, ¼ cup milk, 1 cup dry bread crumbs. Put baked beans and cheese through food chopper. Cook onions in fat until tender and add to beans. Combine dry seasonings and blend with egg. Add Worcestershire sauce, milk and mix well. Let mixture stand 10 minutes. Shape into patties, brush with fat and put in shallow greased baking pan. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 15 minutes. Remove from oven and cover patties with barbecue sauce and bake 15 minutes longer.

Remember—Keep this in mind when buying peas. A 12-ounce package of frozen peas gives you about the same amount as do two pounds of fresh peas.

Pineapple Pudding

One-half cup rice; one-half cup light brown sugar; one cup of crushed pineapple; three cups milk or one and one-half cups evaporated milk diluted with one and one-half cups water; two eggs; one-half teaspoon salt.

Wash rice and let stand in lukewarm water for from one-half to one hour. Drain, put in the top of a double boiler with the milk or diluted evaporated milk. Add salt and let cook until the rice is tender. Add sugar, beaten egg yolks, and grated pineapple, as it comes from the can taking on the juice that has formed an allegiance with the pineapple. Beat egg whites until stiff. Fold into rice-pineapple mixture. Pour into a greased baking dish and bake about 30 minutes in a slow oven, about 300 degrees. Serves four.

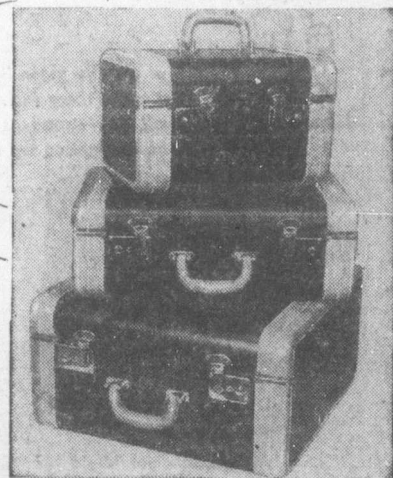

Serve warm with cream, if you have it, or top milk.

Reported U.S. Tourists Take Much Butter Home From Canada

OTTAWA (CP)—The Bureau of Statistics, which uses the same calm tone for good news and bad alike, took a look at the butter situation and has come up with these disturbing facts:

1. Butter stocks are away down. Total supply at Aug. 1 amounted to 78,250,000 pounds, 14,500,000 less than at the same date last year.

2. July production of creamery butter was 42,250,000 pounds, a 250,000-pound drop in comparison with the output in July, 1947.

3. Total production in the first seven months of 1948 was 202,500,000 pounds—another decrease. The comparative figure last year was 205,000,000.

IMPORTS URGED

This is the cold-facts background of a picture highlighted by fears of a butter "famine" this winter. Even dairy officials have urged the government to seek imports from New Zealand or Scandinavia or, failing that, to provide a "suitable substitute."

Figures such as these will be in the public's mind, too, when the Supreme Court meets Oct. 5 to rule whether the 62-year-old ban on import, manufacture and sale of oleomargarine in Canada is constitutional.

However, in Regina Agriculture Minister Gardiner Wednesday stated there cannot possibly be a shortage of butter before next February.

It was learned Wednesday the trade department is considering restrictions on the content of gift parcels for overseas. This would be one way of conserving butter stocks.

There have been suggestions, too, that big amounts of butter are being taken from Canada by United States tourists. Canadian prices, government-controlled at 71-74 cents a pound, are 20-25 cents lower than U.S. prices.

The Bureau of Statistics said that "domestic disappearance"—to all intents and purposes, consumption—was higher in July than in any previous month this year. It was almost 33,250,000 pounds, compared with 31,750,000 in June and 30,750,000 in July, 1947.

Behind the decreased butter production is a drop in milk output. At June 30 Canada's 1948 production was 7,867,846,000 pounds, a drop of 286,000,000 from last year's six-month total.

Candidates Try For Swimming Awards At Crystal Garden

Members of the Swimming and Water Safety School of Victoria, sponsored by the Victoria Branch, Canadian Red Cross, took their final tests for their swimming certificates at the Crystal Garden today.

Candidates included Victoria business men and housewives. Examining officers were Miss Lorna Lee, secretary of the Royal Life Saving Society, and Bob Stangroom, swimming and water safety instructor for Vancouver Island.

Children who have been attending the Red Cross swimming and water safety program during the summer months will receive their swimming awards on Sept. 2. The children, numbering approximately 230, have been taking swimming instructions since July 13 when the school opened.

Swimming instructors included Joan Edwards, Pat Wright, Sue Raybone, Elinor Konkin and Mrs. G. Morton of Sooke.

George Grant, director of physical education for Victoria, is planning a swimming program for children to replace the Red Cross summer school.

Riding Show Held At Ganges Harbor

GANGES—A gymkhana, the first ever held on Salt Spring Island, took place at Haines riding Stables, Ganges Harbor, with over 200 contestants and spectators present. Highlight of the event was an exhibition of tricks and jumping by J. Haines and his palomino horse, "Silver Mane." The prize ribbons were presented by Miss M. T. Scott.

King's Secretary Sends Letter Of Thanks To Poet

PORT ALBERNI—A letter of thanks for the poem she wrote and sent to the King was received this week from the King's secretary by Mrs. Edith Pearce of

A son, George, resides with his family at Victoria, and a daughter, Mrs. L. Hanson, lives at Sooke. Mrs. Pearce's young son, Bobby, is at home.

Of Moroccan Origin

WINNIPEG (CP)—A link in evidence indicating the exploration of Manitoba by Vikings was broken down Wednesday by Winnipeg coin experts.

A large copper coin dated 1282 had been sent to Winnipeg for identification. It was found on Big Island in Lake Winnipeg. The finder, T. Garnett, said the discovery might strengthen the theory that Vikings were the first white men to penetrate the continent.

The coin has been identified as of Moroccan origin. Dated by the Moroccan calendar, its 1282 was 1843 A.D.

June Haver Plays All Screen Ages

June Haver is wondering when her studio will make up its corporate mind. June has portrayed every age on the screen from 10 to 26 (she's just 21) and is currently playing a 16-year-old opposite Lon McCallister in 20th Century-Fox's Technicolor "Scudda-Hoo! Scudda-Hay!" which opens today at the Oak Bay Theatre.

Signed by the studio at 15, she was held back because she looked too young. She finally bowed in "Home in Indiana," playing a 16-year-old, "Irish Eyes

Are Smiling!" found her cast as a young lady of 19. In "The Dolly Sisters" she went back to 10—in early scenes, and in "I Wonder Who's Kissing Her Now," up to 20. Now, in "Scudda-Hoo! Scudda-Hay!" June is back playing a 16-year-old!

'Home Coming' On Royal Screen

"Home Coming" is now being screened at the Royal Theatre. Living in a narrow, social life Clark Gable ignores his fellow-doctor John Hodiak's pleas that there is a great challenge in the disease-ridden slums around them.

Only when war comes, and because of the influence of his courageous, sharply perceptive nurse, Lana Turner, does Clark begin to understand what John meant. Deeply attached to Anne Baxter, the wife he left back home, Clark nevertheless feels he has fallen in love with Lana.

She is transferred to another unit but fate brings them together again in Paris. Lana insists on accompanying Clark on a dangerous mission, finally admits she returns his love, but is fatally wounded and dies.

Titled Actor Known As 'Butch'

Sir Cedric Hardwicke, who plays the title role in "Tycoon" now at the York Theatre, in color by Technicolor, tells how he got his knighthood.

"The British people are impressed by titles but not by actors," says Sir Cedric, "and there came a time when Their Majesties became interested in the theatre and thought it was about time that actors were recognized as people. Various methods were tried, to no avail, when someone had the happy inspiration to scatter a few titles around among us. I happened to be handy at the time, and got one."

'Blanche Fury' Comes To Odeon

Anthony Havelock-Allan, producer of Cineguild's "Blanche Fury," which is currently at the Odeon Theatre, is beginning to think that the notorious English climate is not so fickle and unpredictable as is reputed. Last winter, when he wanted to shoot snow scenes the whole of England obligingly covered itself with a pall of snow, and later, when he was ready to go ahead with summer exteriors, a heat wave suddenly made things easy for him.

Zane Grey Story Showing At Rio

Desperadoes spread death and destruction among the new settlers in RKO Radio's "Code of the West," based on Zane Grey's gripping story of the rip-roaring days of the Arizona frontier. James Warren has the featured lead. Is now being shown at the Rio Theatre.

The small town of Ryson is run by a boss gambler (played by Raymond Burr) and his gang of toughs, who jump claims and drive the settlers off their lands. Warren and his Mexican-Irish partner, played by John Laurenz, rescue an eastern banker and his daughter from a hold-up and decide it is time to clean up the town and establish law and order.

Finals Tonight In Horseshoe Pitching

McDonald was high ringer man with 25. The tournament attracted 24 entries.

Syndicate May Buy San Diego Ball Club

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Film director-sportsman David Butler said today he is interested in heading a syndicate to buy the San Diego club of the Pacific Coast Baseball League.

If such a deal is made, Butler said, Jimmy (Ripper) Collins who was recently let go as manager, will be placed in charge again.

Butler said he has not as yet talked or corresponded with Bill Starr, Victor Schulman or Dr. Robert Stone, who own the Padre stock.

ATLAS THEATRE

Paulette Goddard, currently co-starred with Gary Cooper in Cecil B. DeMille's Technicolor epic for Paramount, "Unconquered," takes six weeks of ballet training before starting on a picture. The famous actress says the training gives her balance in difficult scenes requiring fast movement.

"Unconquered," now at the Atlas Theatre, is perhaps Miss Goddard's most strenuous film to date. She plays a much-maligned slave, and her pre-picture training stood her in good stead.

Registrations Under Way At College

Miss Dorothy Cruickshank, right, Victoria College registrar, and Miss Patricia Sullivan, assistant to the registrar, sign students for the coming term.

A total of 103 students have registered for the opening of Victoria College, Sept. 16, and officials do not expect as large an enrollment this year as last. Miss Dorothy Cruickshank, registrar, said 120 had signed for courses at this time last year, many of them ex-servicemen and women. Fewer veterans will be attending this year.

Total registration last year was 489 and Miss Cruickshank estimated this year's total will be between 350 and 400. In the registrations to date, 38 men and 37 women have signed for first year, and 16 men and 12 women for second year. Five ex-servicemen are included in the first-year registrations and seven in second year.

Five scholarship winners have registered. They include the three island leaders in junior matriculation examinations last June. A. Ronald Forbes was second highest junior matric student in the province; Maureen A. Cromie, was first in the Greater Victoria district, and John J. Sheppy led northern Saanich and middle island districts. Forbes and Miss Cromie attended Victoria High School, and Sheppy, North Saanich High.

The other two scholarship winners registered won awards in first year of College and will be entering second year classes. They are Elizabeth Bryson, winner of the John W. Church Memorial Scholarship for classics, and Mamie McAllister, who won the United Scottish Societies Scholarship.

Students will start writing the College's supplemental examinations Friday.

Flying Doctor Saved After Crash Gives Rescuer Plane

EDMONTON (CP) — J. Pete McCullough is the owner of a $3,000 Cessna aircraft, a gift from Dr. Vance B. Murray of Washington, D.C.

Mr. McCullough, a trapper and farmer in the lonely Pipestone Creek district of northern Alberta, was given the plane after his 20-horse pack train had found and rescued the 67-year-old doctor-pilot missing for two weeks on a flight from Edmonton to Grande Prairie, Alta.

DIFFICULT TASK

The only trouble is that the plane now is resting on a gravel bed at the bottom of a 2,000-foot canyon. Pete is a bit dubious as to what can be salvaged from the plane. So dense and wild is the terrain in which the plane crashed that only nimblefooted pack horses have penetrated its wilderness. However, McCullough and his brother Harry plan to take their pack train to the canyon and bring back everything possible.

Meanwhile, shaven, rested and recovering from a knee injury, the slight Dr. Murray said in a press talk Wednesday that he had prepared himself for death in the mountainous Nose Creek district of northern Alberta when rescued.

A doctor in the United States public health service, he said he crash-landed in the 2,000-foot deep canyon Aug. 7 on a flight to Grande Prairie, 242 miles northwest of Edmonton. The canyon lies about 80 miles southwest of Grande Prairie.

FLYING 15 YEARS

A world traveler in various duties with the United States government service and a veteran of 15 years flying experience, the doctor lost 20 pounds during his two weeks of wandering hopelessly lost in the bushland. He arrived here by air from Grande Prairie Tuesday night and expects to travel home by way of Chicago by train. Date of his departure from Edmonton has not been fixed.

Seven times on the morning of Friday, Aug. 20—the day he was found—Murray tried to cross Lonely Nose Creek in an effort to walk out of the wilderness. Each time he failed. Finally he resigned himself to the fate of dying in a camp he set up on a high stretch of gravel in the creek.

"I had given up all hope after my knee became too sore to walk and after I had failed in my attempts to cross the creek," he said. "Wet from my efforts to cross the creek, I lay down on my sleeping bag on the rise of gravel which had been my bed for several days. I believed that was the end."

"All that was left of the supply of food I took from the plane was half a box of soda crackers, a tin of chili con carne and three-quarters of a wiener ...

LIKE A CIRCUS

"As I lay on the gravel bed I was thinking of my travels throughout the world ... when suddenly there was a clatter of stones. At first I thought I was imagining things, as persons, lost as I was, often do. But finally I could see horses and for a minute I thought I was seeing a circus come over the bank of the creek.

"As the pack train came nearer I knew I had been saved. There were four men. You cannot imagine my joy at seeing them."

He said the men, Pete McCullough, Harry McCullough, Adam Kenny and Victor Johns, all of Pipestone Creek, carried him on horseback to Wembley, Alta., and finally to a hospital at Grande Prairie.

Mrs. O'Callaghan Last B.C. Player In Golf

RIVERSIDE GOLF CLUB, N.B. (CP) — The Canadian Women's open golf championship continued today with a colorful sectional and international quarter-final field of eight and the prospects that anything can happen before nightfall.

Three Toronto golfers, two from Montreal and one from Vancouver were still in the running against the depleted American ranks that numbered only two—the defending champion, Grace Lenzyk of Newington, Conn., and Mrs. Eddie Bush of Wilmington, Del.

One all-Toronto match today brings together Ada Mackenzie and Mrs. J. B. Seawright, both of whom fought off two additional American threats yesterday in a pair of terrific struggles.

Miss Lenzyk yesterday made an inauspicious start after dropping the first hole to Mrs. T. M. Lockwood of Montreal but immediately returned to her smooth game and won 4 and 3.

She starts out today against the sole west coast representative, Mrs. Hugh O'Callaghan of Vancouver, who was hard pressed yesterday to overcome Mrs. A. L. Smith of Oak Ridge, Ont., 2 and 1 in a match that was fought on even terms most of the way.

Toronto's third golfer still in the championship chase is Mrs. Cecil Gooderham, Ontario champion, who defeated Isabel Jarvis of Victoria 4 and 3.

Second round results follow: Mrs. Blair Gordon, St. Andrews, N.B., defeated Mrs. C. L. Urquhart, Riverside, 5 and 2.
Mrs. Bruce Campbell, Winnipeg, defeated Mrs. J. B. Ross, Quebec, one up.
Mrs. J. H. Todd, Victoria, defeated Mrs. W. S. Elder, Winnipeg, 2 and 1.
Jo Anna, Welland, Ont., defeated Frances Sharpe, Hull, Que., 5 and 4.
Mrs. W. H. Smith, Ottawa, defeated Mrs. J. A. McDougald, Toronto, at the 19th hole.
Mrs. C. H. Shuttleworth, Bartonville, Ont., defeated Mrs. K. Shakespeare, Toronto, Scarborough, 6 and 4.
Kay Helmer, Toronto, defeated Marjorie Ross, Windsor, Ont., by default.
Mrs. H. P. Connor, Halifax, defeated Mrs. N. J. Carlson, Toronto, at the 20th hole.

Mitch Chetkovich Faces Theft Charge

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Extradition of Michel (Mitch) Chetkovich, pitcher-manager of the Boston-Douglas Miners of the Arizona-Texas League, to Tacoma, Wash., on a theft charge was asked here today.

Police said Chetkovich was accused of embezzling $70 from the Fraternal Order of Eagles.

Chetkovich was a relief pitcher with the Washington Senators in 1939. He signed with the Tacoma Tigers in 1947.

Not one of the four players who will defend for the United States against the Australians in the challenge round Sept. 4 to 6 is in the same class with Jack Kramer, who helped overwhelm the Aussies twice before turning pro last winter.

Ted Schroeder was an exceptionally fine player at his peak, but he is devoting himself to business these days and is rusty. Frankie Parker, who doubtless will share the singles duties with Schroeder, isn't what he used to be, as he proved in losing to such an average player as Lennart Berggren of Sweden in this summer's Wimbledon championships.

Australians no better. The Australians are no better off. Theirs is a makeshift team, too.

The American four-man team, which includes Billy Talbot and Gardnar Mulloy as a possible doubles combination, probably is the best the selectors could have chosen. For all his victory at Wimbledon, Bob Falkenberg is too erratic and uncertain to be counted upon in Davis Cup play. Because of internal bickering, the Aussies almost certainly will not bring their strongest team to Forest Hills. John Bromwich, snubbed by his country's selectors, is on his way home by boat from England. Virtually without exception, players will tell you he still is the greatest man at doubles in the world.

ONLY FAIR COMBINATION. So, the Aussies must depend upon Colin Long and Geoff Brown for their Davis Cup doubles, and it is only a fair combination. It wasn't strong enough to lick the Czechs in the interzone final. Adrian Quist, a fine doubles player, scarcely is up to playing two singles and a doubles on successive days.

In view of this known Australian weakness, it would seem the point of logic for Alrick Man Jr., the United States captain, to name Mulloy and Talbot as his doubles pair and forget about it, leaving Schroeder and Parker to concentrate on singles.

Parker and Schroeder do not like each other worth a cent. Frankie's distaste for Ted dates back to two winters ago in Melbourne when Schroeder was picked to play the cup singles opposite Kramer, and Parker was left to brood in his hotel room. What Frankie told this reporter about the deal he felt he had been given was almost too hot to be put on the air waves back to this country.

Off the court, the two artists merely nod, but reports indicate they make a good doubles team.

An X-ray disclosed today that Lake broke the third finger on his left hand in two places during Tuesday night's game against the Athletics at Shibe Park.

CLIFF MELTON HAS FRACTURED FINGER. SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Cliff Melton, the San Francisco Seals' best pitching wheel in their drive toward the Pacific Coast League championship, has broken the fourth finger of his salary hand. Melton leads the pitching staff with 15 wins and nine losses.

Want $1,000,000 A Year To Assist Canadian Sports. MONTREAL (CP)—A. Sidney Dawes of Montreal, chairman of the Canadian Olympic Committee, has a plan to raise the standard of the Dominion's athletes—a $1,000,000-a-year grant from the Dominion government. He spoke briefly of his idea at a dinner given the Canadian Olympic team which arrived from Halifax.

"We want a million dollars a year from the government to help our sports," Dawes told the athletes. He urged them to "get behind" sports and take an active interest in the game.

"Don't worry about criticism—you'll get that—but be good at the game."

He referred briefly to the showing of Canada in the London games and came up with statistics to show that every one in four of the 100-strong team received an award of some kind.

CLINT SMITH WILL Manage St. Paul. ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—The St. Paul club of the United States Hockey League announced Wednesday that 34-year-old Clint Smith, former National Hockey League veteran, has been named coach.

Smith played at Tulsa last year and was voted the most valuable U.S.H.L. player. His hockey career began in Saskatoon of the Western Canada League when he was 19 years old.

In the National League, Smith played with the New York Rangers.

NEWCOMBE HEADS For Majors On Great Pitching. NEW YORK (CP)—Don Newcombe, negro pitcher of the International League leaders, Montreal Royals, seems to be headed for the major leagues.

So far this year, the 24-year-old righthander has won 15 games while only dropping four. In the process he has handed every team in the loop a defeat.

The last team of the league to bow before Newcombe was Rochester Red Wings. He blanked them last week after shutting out Toronto Maple Leafs in the previous start.

He thereby came close to being the first pitcher in the circuit's 65-year-old history to pitch two consecutive no-hit-no-run games. He shut out Toronto 8 to 0 Aug. 15 and five days later allowed only one hit against the Red Wings.

Newcombe broke into professional baseball with Nashua of the New England League in 1946, winning 14 games. He followed it up with 19 last year and was promoted to the Royals.

Supreme will be put through its paces by Gay in non-competitive exhibitions.

The show, under Kiwanis Club sponsorship, will have afternoon and evening performances starting at 2:30 and 7:30.

Lawn Bowlers In Novice Tournament. The Greater Victoria Lawn Bowling Association novice singles will be played at the Victoria West greens on Saturday at 2.

Davis Cup Tennis Classed As Second Rate Promotion

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP) — Davis Cup tennis, one of the great events of world sports, has degenerated this year to the point where it scarcely seems worth while.

Because of the lure of professional money, the talent available for the international team match has become little better than second rate—that is, compared to the court giants who battled for the huge silver mug in the past.

Not one of the four players who will defend for the United States against the Australians in the challenge round Sept. 4 to 6 is in the same class with Jack Kramer, who helped overwhelm the Aussies twice before turning pro last winter.

Ted Schroeder was an exceptionally fine player at his peak, but he is devoting himself to business these days and is rusty. Frankie Parker, who doubtless will share the singles duties with Schroeder, isn't what he used to be, as he proved in losing to such an average player as Lennart Berggren of Sweden in this summer's Wimbledon championships.

Australians no better. The Australians are no better off. Theirs is a makeshift team, too.

The American four-man team, which includes Billy Talbot and Gardnar Mulloy as a possible doubles combination, probably is the best the selectors could have chosen. For all his victory at Wimbledon, Bob Falkenberg is

Ab Jr. Wins Nursery Stakes At Vancouver

VANCOUVER (CP) — Ab Jr., Vancouver-owned two-year-old chestnut colt, Wednesday ploughed through the muddy Hastings Park track to an easy two-length victory in the $2,000-added British Columbia Nursery Stakes.

Want $1,000,000 A Year To Assist Canadian Sports

MONTREAL (CP)—A. Sidney Dawes of Montreal, chairman of the Canadian Olympic Committee, has a plan to raise the standard of the Dominion's athletes—a $1,000,000-a-year grant from the Dominion government. He spoke briefly of his idea at a dinner given the Canadian Olympic team which arrived from Halifax.

"We want a million dollars a year from the government to help our sports," Dawes told the athletes. He urged them to "get behind" sports and take an active interest in the game.

"Don't worry about criticism—you'll get that—but be good at the game."

He referred briefly to the showing of Canada in the London games and came up with statistics to show that every one in four of the 100-strong team received an award of some kind.

"People in Britain had nice things to say about you at all times."

Shortly after the dinner, given by the Montreal Sportsmen's Association, team members dashed to railway stations to start the last leg of their journey from Britain. Some stayed overnight to see the town.

Controversy Raging Over Name For New Park In Victoria West

City parks officials admitted today there are differences of opinion and strong agitation over naming of a new park in Victoria West, but no immediate action is contemplated.

The parks committee, under chairmanship of Ald. M. Aubrey Kent, will consider names suggested for the park, but will not make any final decision.

Ald. Kent said several suggested names probably will be referred to the City Council "at a later date" and that body will be asked to choose the official name.

The park has been called unofficially Banfield Park after Ald. Charles Banfield, president of the Victoria West Community Centre, which was instrumental mainly in developing the area into a park.

The park has 7.2 acres of land situated northeast of Craigflower Road between Raynor and Styles Streets and running to the edge of Selkirk Water.

DAVIES SUGGESTED

It has been suggested that the name of former alderman W. H. (Billy) Davies be considered for the park. Supporters of this point out that Mr. Davies was instrumental in having the property set aside for park purposes. They say he has lived in Victoria West for nearly a half century, and has done a great deal for the district as well as the city as a whole.

Another suggestion is that it be called Selkirk Park because of its proximity to Selkirk Water, and another group believes Craigflower Park would be more suitable.

At one time the parks committee voiced opposition to naming the park after a living person, but it is not known if the committee will insist that such a policy be followed.

The Town Planning Commission is among groups keenly interested in the naming of the park, and it is believed recommendations will come from this group.

Article In Holiday Of Great Value To City, Says Warren

The current issue of Holiday magazine which features a 4,000-word, illustrated article on Victoria is the greatest thing that has happened to this city in many years, George I. Warren, commissioner of the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau, says.

"People all over the continent are reading that magazine and are wanting to come here and see the things the story tells of."

The value of the article in terms of tourist dollars and cents is unestimable, Mr. Warren says. Already his office has received queries from persons living in the United States, who have learned about this part of Canada from the Holiday feature.

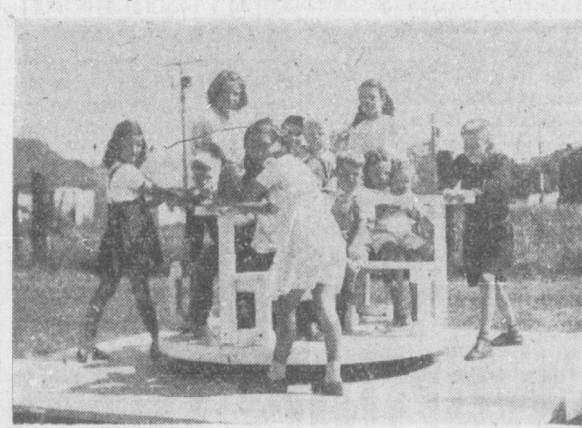

A letter received this morning from a chicken rancher in McLeansboro, Ill., reads: "I would appreciate information concerning Vancouver Island, particularly about Victoria, as mentioned in the September number of Holiday magazine."

"Everyone in Victoria should be appreciative of what that magazine is doing," Mr. Warren says. "Everyone benefits, either directly or indirectly, from tourist dollars and that article is going to bring plenty of tourists."

Whether they agree with Mr. Warren or not, Victorians are certainly showing interest in what the article has to say about them and their city. Over 2,000 copies have been sold here already and another 1,500 are expected to be sold during the remaining 10 days that the magazine will be on sale.

Usual circulation for the magazine in Victoria is about 300, a spokesman for Lovick's News Agency, distributors, said.

Fine Playlot On Lyall Street

Thanks to John Halstead, a retired railwayman, Esquimalt youngsters between the ages of three and 12 have for their pleasure one of the finest playlots in western Canada. Located at 1039 Lyall Street, the playlot, while little more than an acre in area, is equipped with see-saws, swings, slides, climbing bars, rocking horses and many other outdoor toys, all built by Mr. Halstead. Latest novelty at the playlot is the merry-go-round shown above, being used by a number of children who use the playlot nearly every day of the year.

Movie Director Seeks Story Of Real Canada For Picture

A story of the real Canada, not the romanticized and stylized one of the flashing scarlet tunics of Mounted Police on glistening white fields of snow, is the object of a search by Sam Marx, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer director, now holidaying in Victoria.

Mr. Marx, whose picture, "Son of Lassie," contained a good deal of film footage shot on lower Vancouver Island, is now in charge of the M.G.M. unit responsible for the documentary films such as "Northside 777" and "Naked City."

These pictures, Mr. Marx explained, are based on a little fact which is twisted into good fiction then shot on location to make them seem real again.

STILL SEARCHING

At present he is interested in doing a Canadian film of this type and has been assisted in his search by Blake Owen-Smith, a Canadian with the Johnson office. He hasn't found the right one yet, although he did at one time have an interest in the story of Red Ryan, Canada's Dillinger.

At the time, said Mr. Marx, it seemed like an interesting story of a Canadian who was a first-rate crook. Ryan was a criminal, sentenced to jail, who finally gained a pardon after he had convinced officials that he had reformed. For some time Ryan was on a lecture tour in which he spoke against crime. About the same time there was a series of bank robberies. Finally the police shot two of the robbers and one of them turned out to be the "reformed" Ryan.

UNREGENERATE STORY

Mr. Marx found this didn't jibe with his unit's policy. The trouble with the whole thing, he said, was that it was a story of an unregenerate crook, whereas the film company wants to be on the side of law and order.

One of the stories he would like to film about Canada is that

Charles Palmer To Give Organ Recital

The organ recital to be given by Charles Palmer at First United Church at the close of service Sunday evening will include Prelude and Fugue in C by Bach and Cesar Franck's Choral No. 3 in A minor.

Mr. Palmer, who has resided in Victoria since his discharge from the Royal Air Force in 1945, holds a Master of Arts degree in Music from Oxford. For several years he was organist and choir-master at All Saints Church at Windsor Great Park which the King attends. At the present time he is acting as substitute organist at First United Church in this city.

Variety will be given to the recital by the inclusion of violin and soprano solos. Mrs. Gertrude Bates, well known on the concert platform, will play "Wachet Auf" by Bach. Louise Martin will be heard in the solo from the Messiah, "Rejoice Greatly."

Heavy smoke which poured from an 1161 Fort Street dwelling this morning led many citizens to believe that the roof of the house was on fire. Victoria's fire department which was called to the scene discovered the smoke was due to a defective chimney.

Tribute Paid Archie McKinnon In Donations To Appreciation Fund

"He is a swell fellow, a second Babe Ruth," is the way one donor to the Archie McKinnon Appreciation Fund describes the Y.M.C.A. coach in a letter received by John Baxter, retiring secretary to Mayor Percy George, who is receiving subscriptions at the City Hall.

The fund today neared the $500 mark with a donation from Premier Byron Johnson. Mr. Baxter pointed out again that Coach McKinnon is returning home from England where he was in charge of the Canadian Olympic swimming team, sooner than expected, and persons planning on making donations to the fund, should do so at once.

"We would like to have the fund completed before Archie hits town," Mr. Baxter said.

PREMIER GRATIFIED

With his donation, Premier Johnson sent a letter in which he states he was gratified to learn that a number of private citizens have banded together to arouse public interest in subscribing to a purse to be presented Archie McKinnon on his return from the Olympic Games.

"Mr. McKinnon has dedicated his whole life to the advancement of good, clean sport among our young people in Victoria," the Premier wrote.

"While it is true he is on the staff of the Y.M.C.A., due to the limited finance of that organization, it has perhaps not been possible for them to give the recognition they would like to Mr. McKinnon for his untiring efforts."

"I think that the plan to raise funds among those who have a full appreciation of Mr. McKinnon's work is a very laudable one which I trust will receive wholehearted support," Premier Johnson said.

He pointed out further the fact that so many Victorians qualified for the Canadian Olympic team is a tribute to Mr. McKinnon's ability as a physical director and coach.

Soap Box Derby Coming Up

Parents! Any day now Jimmy will come running out of the basement, hollering his head off about Brian taking the wheels off his wagon—the one Santa Claus brought him last Christmas.

But don't be alarmed, Mother, there's nothing to worry about. Brian is only "borrowing" the wheels and he'll put them back on the wagon after Labor Day.

"What's Labor Day got to do with it?" mother asks.

"Gee Mom, don'tcha know? That's when the Knights of Pythias are gonna put on their soap box derby at Ryan Street hill and they're gonna give away a new bike and a lot of other swell prizes."

"I'm gonna try an' win that bike, Mom. See, I'm building a bug. I've got all the parts 'cept the wheels and if I take the wheels off Jimmy's wagon I'll be all set."

"Jimmy won't mind. Will ya Jimmy? He can ride his tricycle for a couple of weeks. Can't you Jimmy?"

That will be the story in a lot of Victoria homes this week for the Pythian brothers expect a record number of entries in this year's soap box classic—even more than last year when they had over 70 competing.

The committee in charge is arranging to have a proper starting ramp in use this year. Races will be run in heats and Inspector Robert Owens of the Provincial Police is to be official starter.

The derby is open to girls as well as boys and information regarding the size and specifications of bugs can be obtained from R. H. Abbott, 135 Bushby Street, by phoning B1137. Official entry blanks will be printed in the Times.

Investment Dealer Heard In Court

J. Denis Hagar, Victoria investment dealer, gave testimony in Supreme Court today regarding procedures followed by underwriters in purchasing property. He was witness for the B.C. Power Commission in its appeal against the award of the American Appraisal Co. regarding the price to be paid for the assets of the Nanaimo-Duncan Utilities Ltd. expropriated by the commission in August, 1945.

Mr. Hagar was testifying after an objection by Alfred Bull, K.C., counsel for the company, over the qualification of the witness had been rejected by Judge J. O.

Wilson. He amused the court at one point.

"What is the first thing you would do in negotiating for purchase of property?" asked H. W. Davey, K.C., who is appearing for the power commission.

"The very first thing?" said Mr. Hagar.

"Yes, the very first thing."

"Well, I'd see if the owners wanted to sell," replied the witness.

The judge and spectators laughed heartily.

Toimie Playground closing exercises will be held tomorrow night at 7 at North Quadra Scout Hall, Glasgow St. Handicraft will be exhibited. There will be a home-cooking stall, a tumbling display and bingo.

Enrollment Expected To Top 200 Mark At Normal School

A postwar record enrollment in the provincial Normal School here has already been effected despite the fact that registration has three weeks to go.

It was learned today that 150 have been enrolled to date. Last year's enrollment totaled 148—of which 48 were men. Enrollment by the time the term starts Sept. 13 is expected to top 200.

While during the war enrollment in the Normal School was predominately women, and that condition is continuing this year, more men are turning to the teaching profession. The rising wages of school teachers, coupled with a tightening up of employment opportunities in other professions, are believed responsible for this.

Some shuffling of classrooms is expected at the Richmond Avenue school which also houses Victoria College. Enrollment at the college this year is reported down, so that no overall housing shortage is expected.

Despite the increasing numbers enrolling in the provincial normal schools it is believed that five to six years will be needed to provide the province with an adequate teaching staff. Because many teachers are still teaching on temporary permits the schools of the province at the present time are getting by.

Bulk of the output of the Normal School here was taken quickly by the schools of the province immediately following graduation this year. H. O. English, principal, believes that all of the students graduated as teachers this year have been placed.

Since the Normal School here enrolls students from all parts of the province many of the graduates return to teaching jobs in their own districts.

The DOCTOR Says:

REST IS IMPORTANT FOR TUBERCULAR CASES

Rest treatment should be started as soon as tuberculosis of the lung is discovered. Although streptomycin is of value in certain forms of tuberculosis, the best results in the average patient follow rest treatment.

When tuberculosis germs are inhaled into the lungs of susceptible persons, they lodge in the tissue and start to multiply. Surrounding lung tissue becomes inflamed and in some cases destroyed, resulting in a hole (cavity) which can be seen by X-ray. In other cases the infection produces dense scar tissue.

Constant movement of the lungs in breathing interferes with healing. If the patient goes to bed, this reduces the amount of lung movement to a certain extent but usually it is necessary to split the lung to keep it quiet. This is done by injecting air between the lung and the under surface of the chest wall.

The air which is injected is slowly absorbed so that the injection must be repeated. If adhesions are present between the lung and chest wall they may be divided to allow the lung to collapse. After the lung has been kept quiet for some time, it is allowed to expand.

OPERATION POSSIBLE

If tuberculosis infection is located mainly in one lung and if air injections are not successful, an operation can be performed. A section of the chest wall is removed under anesthesia so that the chest cavity is permanently reduced in size. Patients do not have any difficulty with breathing as the opposite lung is able to take over the job in most cases.

For some time it was thought that good food, fresh air and sunshine were responsible for good results. Tuberculosis sanatoriums were built in certain sections of the country and patients were advised to go away for treatment. Today we realize the cure results from rest, and it can be taken in an institution near the patient's home.

CHADDESLEY CORBETT, Worcestershire—E. A. Millward, 84, has resigned after 63 years as organist at the parish church here.

PILE TORTURE

When you remove the cause of any trouble, a great amount of the work is done. That is why PYLENE is so successful in those formerly hopeless cases. Thousands have found one bottle to be sufficient. Mr. G. Blake, Edmonton, reports a slight return after 18 months but a few doses cleared it up again. Those are the results the new PYLENE TREATMENT is giving everywhere. You get results with first bottle or money refunded at once. $1.75 at all druggists.

U.S. Opens Big Maintenance Base

LONDON (AP)—The British air ministry said Tuesday night the United States Air Force had opened a large central repair and maintenance base in England.

The base, at Burtonwood in Lancashire, will service the B-29 Superfortresses and C-54 Skymasters the United States now has in Britain, the announcement said.

The ministry said opening of the base was made necessary by "the greatly increased air activities of the United States Air Force in Europe."

The base will handle maintenance of C-56s carrying supplies to blockaded Berlin and B-29s "engaged in routine training flights in the United Kingdom," the ministry said.

Two shiploads of equipment, including heavy trucks, mobile cranes, jeeps, ambulances and bomb carriers, have been unloaded at Liverpool and another en route.

Long Prison Stretch

TACOMA (AP)—Any way you look at it McNeil Island Penitentiary inmate Frank Hester Jr. has done a long stretch. Hester, sentenced to the prison from the U.S. Army, told Federal Judge Charles H. Leavy Wednesday he was an even five feet tall when committed to the institution in 1944.

Today, in court on an unsuccessful plea for a writ of habeas corpus, Hester measured six feet, one inch.

BABY'S

UPSET STOMACH
QUICKLY CORRECTED

BABY'S little "Tummy" is often easily upset. It is easily righted again, too, if you know just how to do it. Let Mrs. M. S. Alway, of London, Ont., tell you "Baby's Own Tablets" are a great help at the first sign of upset stomach, during teething time or when a cold is coming on. They work quickly yet gently to carry away poisons and promote restful comfort.

And Mrs. W. J. Sharp says: "I nursed my baby shortly after being alarmed over a motor accident and her stomach became quite upset. I gave her Baby's Own Tablets and she soon stopped crying—and quieted down."

Equally effective for teething troubles, constipation, simple fever, sweet-tasting, easily crushed to a powder, if desired—prompt in action. No "sleepy" stuff—no dulling effect. Buy a box today for sickness so often strikes in the night. 25 cents.

MOVIES — UNDER THE STARS

TO A "Drive-In" movie we went in Tacoma, and the originator of such... should have a diploma. It's the easiest way to see a show, just jump in your car and off you go. You don't need to hunt for a parking spot, you drive right in... their great big lot. The wife wears a housecoat or any old rag, the kids can eat pop-corn while U smoke a fat. No need for a sitter to park her big feet, you just throw the kids... in the back seat.

IT'S EASY TO PARK down by OUR store, we've bargains today... simply galore. Like 129 for a davenport suite, a double-feature... hard to beat.

Their Announcer understands... a family man, 'cause over his "mike," he outlines the plan. "It's intermission now, if the kids 'have-to-go,' take them down the steps... 'it's below.' Then YOU can relax in Sedan or Jeep, 'cause soon in the back... they'd fall asleep. I said, 'C'mon gals to this underground,' coffee and coke there we found. Then we went back and got in the car, 'Jeannie Crain,' was the wistful star. But OUR kids didn't curl up and go bye-bye, in fact they didn't... even try.

TRY AND FIND TIME to see "THIS," if you are looking for a dining-room suite... it's an "in-between," size with 6 chairs, larger table, and thoughtful buffet... ware-housed $145 in solid maple... walnut finished.

BUT I NOTICED when... we were down below, other kids were in pyjamas... each with kimono. The queerest sight you ever did see, hundreds chasing each other... in that W.C. Having themselves a heck of a time, out at the movies... past their bed-time. This their favorite game, with the best rewards, yanking each other's... pyjama cords. Our gals marvelled at these goings-on, and down their noses rather looked upon. As back we went and got in the bus, and all settled down... with no more fuss.

YOU COULD SETTLE DOWN with THIS chesterfield in your home... it's "American-moderne" in the new color... "American Beauty" Rose mohair... the rocker is in turquoise... it's "REALLY sumptin'.

A SPEAKER is hung on your window pane, the volume of which... soup up or restrain. The front of your car is rammed up a bit, so it's easy to see... wherever you sit. But just WHAT they'll do in fog or rain??? but that'll be solved by some clever brain. And it is MY guess, as time goes by, more "Drive-Ins"... under the sky. The grandest way to entertain, as you never need stand, or your neck to "CRAIN." Never need line-up out on the street, and U can park your shoes on the back seat. And your NOT too close, nor need binoculars, at these outdoor movies... UNDER THE "STARS."

Estonians Desire To Settle In Canada

As the fourth boatload of Baltic refugees to reach Canada in two weeks landed at Halifax, these Estonians still were being detained at Quebec City awaiting Ottawa's permission to enter Canada legally. The group of 29 who fled Communism are shown aboard the stout ketch in which they sailed across the Atlantic. In Ottawa Tuesday an official said it might be some little time before a decision on their admission to Canada was made.

U.S. Scrutinizing
Burmese Reports
Of Red Rebellion

WASHINGTON (AP) — Reports from a Communist-led revolt in Burma were eyed sharply by United States officials today for signs that Moscow is pulling the strings.

Also of immediate concern is the effect on the world rice supply of the disorder in the newly-independent southeast Asian land. Burma is the world's largest exporter of the great oriental food staple.

The Burmese government, which appealed Monday for help from the people to put down the rebellion, already has indicated it faces difficulties in meeting its export quotas for the next several weeks.

On the basis of diplomatic reports from Rangoon and neighboring capitals, officials say they suspect Moscow has had a direct hand in the rebellion against the government of Premier Thakin Nu. But if this is so, it has been well hidden.

Russian Unable To Attend Reception

OTTAWA (CP) — Francisco Pardo de Zela, Peruvian commercial attache, said Wednesday the Russian charge d'affaires wrote Aug. 21 "regretting his inability to be present" at a diplomatic reception for Ray Atherton, retiring United States ambassador to Canada.

The gathering was held Monday night at the home of Alfred Benavides, Peruvian ambassador. It was attended by the heads of 33 foreign missions. The Russian charge, Nikolai D. Belokhvoshtikov, was not present.

"... The Peruvian embassy," Mr. De Zela said in a statement, "had received three days before the date of the reception a letter from the charge d'affaires of the U.S.S.R. embassy, acknowledging the invitation but regretting his inability to be present due to a previous engagement for that day."

The Canadian Press erroneously quoted Mr. De Zela as saying the Russian embassy had rather "rudely" even neglected to acknowledge the invitation.
